

Cheryl Lynn Schave Remejes, 59, of Mt. Clemens, died Saturday, Jan. 19, 2013.

She was born Jan. 28, 1953, in Detroit, to the late Arthur and Sarah (nee Weston) Schave. On Nov. 7, 1986, in Mt. Clemens, she was united in marriage to Kenneth Michael Remejes. Together, they celebrated their 26th Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. Remejes was employed in the human resource department at the St. John Health Systems. Later, she was employed as a medical office manager for a physical therapy clinic. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Mt. Clemens and formerly served as an usher. Traveling to destinations including Toronto and Chicago, she also enjoyed visiting casinos to play some games of chance. Her hobbies included reading, creating crafts of all sorts, golfing and bowling. Although never having any children of her own, she nurtured her nieces and nephews knowing the importance and love of her extended family. They in turn adored her and mutually enjoyed each others company.

Cheryl is survived by husband, Kenneth; step-children, Kristi (Sean) Glavich and John Remejes; step-granddaughters, Grace and Mary; siblings, Linda (Howard) AcMoody and Kathryn (James) Cada; nieces and nephews, Mark, Heidi, Holly, Bridget, Rebecca and Paul; sister-in-law, Norma (William) Bruck; and step-nephews, Douglas and Steve.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 24, 2013, at First Presbyterian Church, located at 168 Cass in Mt. Clemens.

Visitation will take place from 2 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 23, in the Harold W. Vick Funeral Home, located at 140 South Main in Mt. Clemens, and from 10:30 a.m. until the time of service Thursday in the church.

Memorial contributions may be made to the National Kidney Foundation.
