

INTRODUCTION TO WORKING EQUITATION CLINIC

April 7, 2019 New Paltz, NY Sponsored by the Ulster County Horse Council

Clinician Sandra Washburn is the 2018 ERAHC and WE United Region 6 L5 Champion, L5 Top Ten WE United, Confederation For Working Equitation Reserve Champion Northeast Region. Sandra brings 41 years of experience in training and teaching in many different disciplines. 19 of those years in the study of Classical Dressage with Riding Master Frank Grelo, and the multiple WE National Champion Carlos Carneiro.

Curious about the new sport everyone is talking about? Have questions about applying your riding skills to a fun, multi-faceted competition?

Come to this introductory clinic for answers to:

- What exactly is Working Equitation?
- How do I get started in Working Equitation?
- What are the different phases and levels?
- How do I ride the obstacles and tests?
- What skills do my horse and I need to participate and advance?

The clinic will include explanations of all phases of WE, and on-foot and mounted practice of the tests and obstacles.

Bring your horse and ride in morning and afternoon sessions for only $75. Or, come audit all or part of the day for only $25. Drinks provided; pack your own lunch or get it in nearby New Paltz. No stabling available, but ample trailer parking. Indoor arena means we'll run the clinic rain or shine.

April 7, 2019 9:30 – 4:30

Kindred Spirits Horsemanship, 228 N. Ohioville Rd, New Paltz, NY

Contact azahradnik@gmail.com to reserve your riding or auditing spot. This clinic is expect to sell out quickly.

Ulster County Horse Council is a 501(c)3 and all-volunteer chapter of the of the New York State Horse Council - learn more at www.uhc-ny.org or www.nyshc.org.