

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #232 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

Just as the seasons change, Spring has sprung , especially with the pollen, and the landscape is being renewed with fresh flowers and new life! Likewise, God’s unconditional love and prevenient grace is constantly transforming and renewing our lives. As we enter this walk, CAEW 232, we come not with anticipation, but with joyful expectation for the blessings the Holy Spirit has already prepared not only for our Pilgrims but for the rest of the room as well .

While it is Christ Himself Who has called each participant to these three days in His company, to step away from daily distractions and focus entirely on their faith journey, remember what Isaiah 40:3 and Mark 1:3 says to all of us “Prepare you the way!” So, I would remind everyone that the strength of the weekend comes from the Holy Spirit and complete surrender to God during these three days guarantees a "hundredfold return" in spiritual growth for the Pilgrims and for each of us in the Emmaus Community. Our call to “Prepare the Way” is to pray, therefore I invite the community to sign up for prayer slots. Knowing they are being prayed for is one of the most humbling and powerful experiences for a Pilgrim as well as for us also. Likewise, “agape letters” are so special. While personal letters are just that “personal”, any agape letter will be appreciated knowing that someone who doesn’t even know them, loves and is praying for them! Remember to keep holy the things that are holy, which includes communion and worship. Enjoy GOD’s people and have fun! But keep holy what needs to be kept holy.

“LORD JESUS, we thank You for Your amazing love. We pray for each pilgrim on Walk#232. We pray that they may feel Your renewing, reviving Spirit and make us all into Your likeness through Your sanctifying grace. Give us hearts that burn with Your abiding love and minds open to Your will! In the Name of CHRIST our LORD, amen.”
I am honored to serve our LORD and SAVIOR and HIS people on this walk and everyday!

De Colores!
