

Lanai ohana and visitors listened to stories and music as a part of the program.

Stewardship crew on break, after a long day of work and celebration on the 23rd.

Musicians and attendees shared memories through Hawaiian songs.

Kupuna, who as youth, attended Ka Lanakila services, joined five generations of families in the celebration.

Lanai elders honored at the Ka Lanakila gathering.

Following the gathering everyone enjoyed a seemingly endless meal at Keomoku.