

UGA Veterinary Teaching Hospital

2200 College Station Road Athens, Georgia

706.542.4459 706.357.0103 Sonya Lane slane@uga.edu

Registered Veterinary Technicians Full-time, PRN-Weekends and Overnights

Your best career choice is to consider UGA's Veterinary Teaching Hospital. Our growth has opened up additional RVT positions within the Large Animal hospital, Radiology, Small Animal ECC, Specialty service areas- Dermatology, Neurology and Orthopedics. We are seeking career minded RVT professionals that seek a challenging, diverse, learning environment. Along with competitive salaries, UGA offers an excellent benefits package including health insurance, retirement benefits, annual leave, sick leave, 12 paid holidays, uniforms and reimbursement for continuing education conference expenses.

Associates or Bachelors degree in veterinary technology required and having passed the VTNE with ability to meet requirement for licensure in GA State within 6 months or have met the requirements to transfer licensure to the GA State Board of VET Medicine within 6 months.

Licensure Required

View all of our openings at <https://vet.uga.edu/hospital/jobs>

For consideration, please send your resume with interest letter to Sonya Lane at slane@uga.edu