

Anything Less

*“Give your burdens to the Lord, and He will take care of you.
He will not permit the godly to slip and fall” (Psalm 55:22).*

Anything less than God will always let you down. Depending on anyone else will let you down. God made you. He knows best how you can achieve your potential and His love is deep for you. He is patient, kind and forgiving. He helps you when you stumble. He desires to show you the right way to live and provides the means for you to overcome ALL difficult encounters in this world.

Each situation you face becomes opportunities for God to show you what He can do for you. Yet, there is an enemy that will always try to twist things to give you the view he wants you to see so you doubt what God can do. Only God knows everything, therefore only God is able to understand why things go down the way they do in life. Today's message is a reminder that there is nothing in his stupid bag of tricks that can overpower the promises of a God for your life.

You need to trust HIM that He will work it out. That's what real faith looks like, and it's the one thing that will get you through life's seasons of suffering and uncertainty. God's deepest desire is for you to operate within what He has given you.

He who made you knows exactly what is good for you and what is bad for you. There are boundaries to operate in that sustain you in life. You may never know exactly why God allows some things in your life, but the key to get through it is this--- God is greater than everything in this life, including your trials....

“You are God's handiwork. He did not make a mistake-“For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so that we can do the good things He planned for us long ago”(Ephesians 2:10).
