A Word to the Fore...and Not Much More

We'd also planned to have a feature on the late Andrea Gurdon--a real friend of VCMEC and vintage customs, who was best known in the hobby as the "Breyer History Diva"--who passed away Feb. 17 of bile cancer.

And we'd also intended to have a feature on a surprise donation to VCMEC from Kim Bjorgo and friends, a trio that really delighted us...both that trio of great folks, and the trio of lovely vintage customs! Heartfelt thanks to all!

Those pages are in various stages of completion--but various things happening right now have got me a little too scrambled to do them justice. We want them to be good--so we've moved them all to next issue.

This has been a tough one. We'd intended to have a feature on a spectacular donation to the VCMEC Museum, dozens of scale horse-, pony- and mule-drawn vehicles created by Loren Pribbernow of Wisconsin.

There's plenty of fun this issue, though! The March online auction of hobbyist Cathy Romach's collection electrified the vintage-custom-lovin' community last month, and you'll find the results on pages 4 through 8. The auction also made for at least one happy reunion, as Kim Bjorgo shared at lower left!

Happy Reunion with an Old Friend

Welcome home to Bright Eyes McCue, an Adios custom by Lisa Shepard in 1988.

If I am remembering correctly, I purchased him from Lisa at Laura Behning's SouthCon show in 1988 when he was brand new. During this time I was an undergrad at the University of Florida. A year or so later I found I had no time to show (and no money!), so I sold all the custom models I had at the time, including this fellow. I always regretted selling this guy. By the way, he is still wearing my original show tag from 1989.

It turns out that the original person to whom I sold him kept him these last 35 years and he is in amazingly great shape. Thank you so much to the crew that united the files with their models - I have his photos and documentation here with him. I haven't seen that stationery in a LONG time!

Special thanks to my auction partners - you are amazing humans and I love that we made this happen.

-Kim Bjorgo

The concluding sixth leg of the 2022-23 VCMEC Online World Championships has been judged by Shannon Rodgers. Thank you so much, Shannon! Those results fill the bulk of this issue, along with Shannon's comments and the Victory Lap-- enjoy!

We recently finished the monster job of crunching the series' numbers, averaging each horse's top four placings over the course of the six-leg series to determine the aggregate results. The World Champions and Reserve World Champions will be crowned next issue, in late June/early July!

Something else we'll have more on next issue: Sue Stahl is having a big vintage custom live show, An Autumn To Remember, on Sept. 28 in Belleville, Mich.! Entries open May 1--check it out at https://stahls6.wixsite.com/autumntoremember!

Enjoy the summer, and see you next issue!

WRAP-UP

Shannon writes, "What a delightful honor it is to see and judge so many beautiful vintage customs. I truly appreciate the opportunity and am grateful for every hobbyist who not only lovingly curates these stunning models but celebrates their particular charm and beauty. I'm proud to see how customizing evolves and treasure the unique art in this niche. Thank you to the curators of our special vintage pieces – to see them all in this venue is very special."

"Finally, thanks to Ardith for always providing such a great showcase in which we can appreciate our models. She takes her labor of love very seriously and publishes fantastic history that will endure over time much like our horses have. Cheers to more shows ahead and finding even more vintage customs as they come out of the woodwork to share the spotlight!

"Thank you all again for guarding these vintage beauties and letting me judge them! Some I have been lucky to see at VCMEC live shows, others in old black and white photos, or just in name, and still others are new to me! I marvel at the journey we have had through modeldom and the evolution of art. It is difficult at best to judge so many gorgeous pieces and often comes down to division criteria and photos. In vintage customs, I forgive some of our past materials and practices in comparison with the workings of today, and also allow room for artistic difference and style in all rings."

"I've loved meeting your horses and adore the charm and realism of our older remakes. While I am competitive in today's custom and artist resin rings, I sometimes value the 'horsiness' over hyper smooth finish and the unique imagination and creativity poured into our older models when our limitations were available factory molds and the materials we could access. We delved into knowledge and the fun of it despite growing trends."

"This said, I love that our hobby is revisiting color and workmanship through not only vintage works, but medallions and finish classes. Breed classes are still concerned with Anatomy, Biomechanics, and Color/Conformation. We are still learning more about equine color genetics and new breeds all the time! In some ways, our little niche has its own kind of 'collectibility' as we consider the limited molds, materials, time periods, and artists creating in those eras."

"Thank you again to VCMEC for entrusting me with judging this leg. Our hobby past is so special, and I appreciate efforts in celebrating and promoting our little corner of the model horse universe."

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

STARSHIP PHOENIX

American Saddlebred mare ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "So happy for this firey li'l gal! It was a thrill to welcome her and her moosey Adios pal Tadeusz, also by Nancy Strowger, to my stable when Jeannine DeCuir parted with them in 2013."

"The rich blue of her braids is the very color of the Phoenix, a spacecraft in a Japanese anime series Nancy Strowger was fond of, 'Science Ninja Team Gatchaman.' In flight, the Phoenix could shift into the form of a flaming firebird--so it didn't seem inappropriate to change the name of this memorable miss from Givenchy to Starship Phoenix!"

ROCKING CHAIR RENEGADE REVEL

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Jennifer Raymond in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "From the many unwanted CMs at Marney Waleries' estate sale, this dark unassuming colored appy just sat on my shelf for years. Rocking Chair Renegade Revel, a simple customized Adios by Jennifer Raymond, is a dark bay blanket Appaloosa stallion. He is, however, very difficult to photograph; You could say he is 'camera shy'! I found an online photo of him at an early live show, so I know he WAS shown at some point in one of his previous stable/s. I was lucky enough to keep him when all other chances to sell failed. My gain! He is a simple man after all and I love him!"

AL DHAHAB AL'ASWAD

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship

Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig writes, "I fell in love with this handsome dark chestnut boy instantly and I still can't believe he lives on my shelves! Because as cool as he is in photos, in person...wow! Doubly so! His name means 'black gold' in Arabic (or so I hope, ha ha ha!) and I think that encapsulates the dark glow Nancy Strowger was able to achieve with his extraordinary paint job. He just glows with a stunning richness and depth in person that I think only Nancy could have pulled off back in the day. I just love him and I'm so thrilled about his win! Wow! Thank you!"

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Lois Bennington writes, "In 2024, I can celebrate my 50th anniversary of being in the model horse hobby. My collection is more or less known for being a black hole. There are some horses that I wish now that I had. And a few horses that I will never part with. Dane Tyler Bennington is one of those horses. I just loved the Justin Morgan mold and I must have done something smart to have Laura Hornick-Behning paint him this gorgeous chestnut color and the hairing is just over the top. Thank-you judges for this honor."

DQ DRAGON QUESTOR

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Beth Peart writes, "He was given to me by another Canadian hobbyist, Verna McCausland, because he was in such rough shape, and she thought maybe I could somehow work some repair magic and fix his many deficits - mostly broken legs and severe filler lifting. I did what I could, but decided Linda Leach's heavy impasto oils were not something I could easily replicate, so I put his broken legs back on, and combed his hair and decided he would be fabulous, anyway. At one time he was owned by Connie S. Knotts. I think she was his original owner. I discovered this when I showed him in another vintage photo show, and lo and behold she also had pix of him in the same show and class. Seems she had forgotten she had sold him. It had to have been ages ago. She sent me his vintage photos and I discovered at that time that he was intended to be a rose grey, but I think he works much better as a buckskin. Beyond that I really don't know that much about him. I'm glad he's well-liked!"

GALIENT (AC)

Suffolk Punch stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1989

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "This beefy guy is a real treasure: a commission order that Julie Froelich created for Marney Walerius. After Marney's passing, he was one of her 15 greatest-of-the-great customs sold in the live auction portion of her huge estate sale on Aug. 1, 1992. Tom Bainbridge was the high bidder at $300, who steered him to a hobbyist who hadn't been able to attend, Jenny Palmer. Years later, Jenny sold him to me.

"I remember when he was in the works, Julie mentioned how Marney was having her lavish this guy with mondo-caliber stallion goodness. Good thing he's a draft horse, with all those memories and, heh-heh, himself, to carry!"

NATIVE DELICACY (KO)

Thoroughbred mare ~ CM by Lee Hunter and Jason Ross in 1989

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Kelly O'Connor writes, "Native Delicacy came through the 1989 MARA Select Sale. I admit the SM TB mare was not one of my favorites but the braided mane and tail sold me! That and her glowing color, described as a 'glazing' method painted from light to dark. She has such a lovely kind face and I can imagine her willingness over fences. I've attached her sale page from the Select Sale." (You'll find it on Page 31--thanks, Kelly!)

ROWBAZL (AC)

Knabstrupper stallion ~ CM by Diane Capwell in 1996

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Back in 2009, in ye olde days of the VintageCMHorse Yahoo group, Linda Schenfelt shared an all-text saleslist from Beth Dickinson. Any horse from Beth's collection was always one you'd want!

"One sounded particularly neat: Cause For Applause, described as a Breyer Morganglanz remade by Diana Capwell to a chestnut leopard Appaloosa stallion on a wooden base. Beth had owned him since 1996, the year of his creation. I asked after him but was too late; Cristine Holt, a great fan of Diane Capwell's work, became his lucky new owner.

"Three years later, Cristine pared down her herd, and this time I was the lucky one! Cause For Applause had sounded neat on paper, but actually getting to see a photo of him in Cristine's sale ad, I was floored by his graceful trot, which Diane had expertly engineered to be airborne!

"When she sent Cause For Applause to me, Cristine thoughtfully included a paper record of information she'd catalogued from Diane that revealed he'd actually been created as a Knabstrupper, with a photo that showed he originally had a gorgeous long mane. Seeing what had become of it, I couldn't help uttering a Pogo-ism of frustration:

...and Rowbazl the Knabstrupper he became!"

ENYAA

Arabian mare ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1992

1990s Overall Champion Color

Corky Visminas writes, "So glad to see that *Enyaa is getting some love! I got her from Julie Froelich's production auction in 1992 (along with her mate Shuichi and their daughter Solana).

"She's been photo-shown sporadically ever since then; unfortunately, she just never turned the judges' heads, it seemed. And I couldn't figure that out; she's made from a Classic Arabian Mare, one of Breyer's (and Hagen-Renaker's) prettiest molds; she's also painted an incredibly realistic fleabitten grey, which everyone agrees is a difficult color to accurately render in paint. It's wonderful to see that she's finally getting to shine!"

WHIPPOORWILL INCOGNITO ~ Morgan gelding ~ CM by Judy Renee Pope and Elizabeth Bouras in 1993

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Beth Rappleye writes, "Whippoowill Incognito was a commission from Elizabeth Bouras and Judy Renee Pope, and to be fair, Paula O'Keefe, since she helped them with all their prep and sanding and the like for decades.

"I asked for a standing Little Bit Morgan, as at the time there were no standing Little Bit molds, they were all in action.

SHANE

Icelandic stallion ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in 1997

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Workmanship

Kelly O'Connor writes, "Shane has quite a story! I honestly don't remember how, but I had come into possession of Lady Angelina (a beautiful PAM redone by Julie Froelich with facial detail by Nancy Strowger). Laurie Jo Jensen let me know that if I were interested in parting with her, Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig would be a motivated buyer. Meanwhile I was dying to own something by Sarah herself! And so we agreed she'd create a horse for me. I am thrilled to own him—even if I didn't realize when I opened the box that it was customary to leave a bit of loose ceramic inside, and when I heard the loose shard rattling I was terrified!"

completely judged by two judges while they were up on the tables, and she gave out two complete sets of Championship ribbons/prizes. We were splitting things out into Resin and RRR by then, and Incognito won two Champion and one Reserve ribbon under one Judge, and three Champion ribbons and the Grand under the other!! Quite the debut!

"Incognito has many live and photo show championships to his name, but can be proud to also claim 1997 North American Nationals Top Tens in Saddle Seat and CM Morgan Gelding/Mare, and 2001 NAN Top Tens in Saddle Seat and Parade. Unfortunately those photos did not seem to make the transfer to this computer. I'll include photo show pics of those set-ups just for you, since you don't get to see them in your halter show, and the champ pic from MAR 1993 someone took of us—we are on the left--dang, I had so much hair!

"Thank you for running this amazing show series every year—keeps all our golden oldies alive and well!"

The ladies noticed that the Morgan and the ASB were trotting on opposite diagonals, so did what any totally brilliant remakers would do—they hacked off the raised legs and put all the standing legs on the Morgan body! (Rumor has it somewhere out there is a wildly cantering ASB Little Bit made with all the "up" legs!) That's pretty much how he got his name, because no one would guess at the part swapping. And there is a famous real life line of Morgans named Whippoorwill, of which I've known a few.

"Liz and Judy delivered him to me at the 1993 Mid Atlantic Regionals live show in Maryland. (Dang, just realized that makes him 31 years old!)

"That show was wild—usually a two-day show, Betsy Andrews had to scramble a month out when she lost the school cafeteria she had been using for many years. She got a smaller hall but for only one day, and had to drop performance, but to make it worth everyone's while, she ran it like two complete shows in one. Your models were

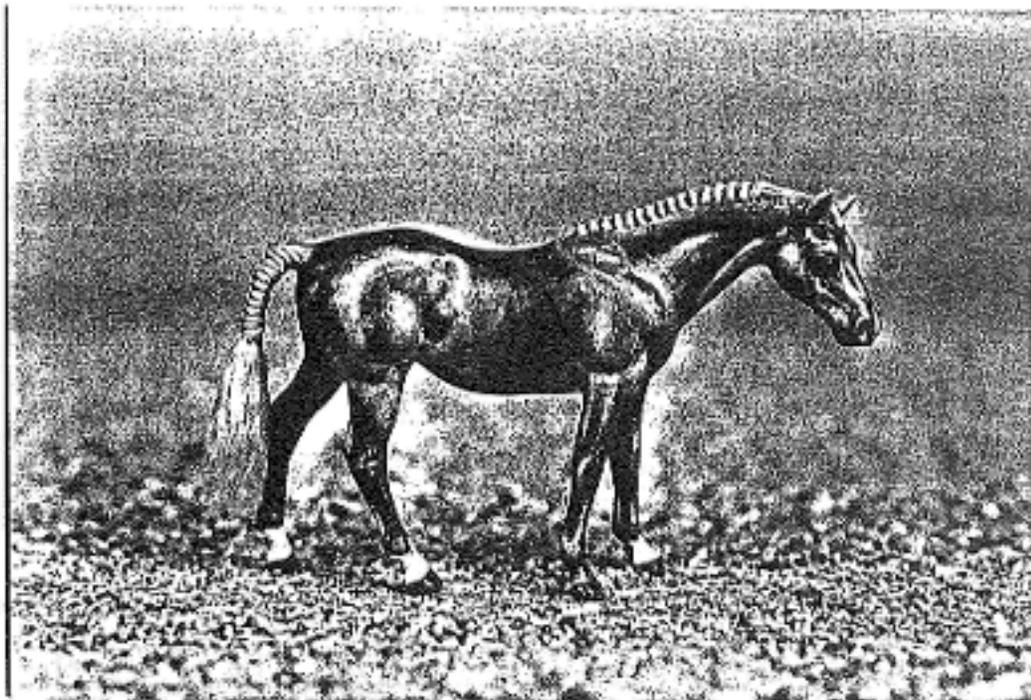

SPARKLING CHABLIS Z

Missouri Foxtrotter stallion ~ CM by Chris Nandell in 1998

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "One of my very few Breyerfest finds, Sparkling Chablis Z is a simple repaint by Chris Nandell on the Iron Metal Chief Foxtrotter mold. Purchased in 1998 directly from Chris, he was one of three horses left on her table by the time I got to it! A lovely classic champagne color like a glass of Sparkling Chablis! So named, even though I don't imbibe! My soft spot for gaited horses is quite evident in my collection."

FUTURITY: past Futurity age

CONSIGNOR'S COMMENTS: "This beautiful hunter-type mare should show very well in halter, and in performance events in huntseat when photos are available; she will also be a top steeplechase race prospect. But the greatest value of this mare could be as a broodmare; she carries 2 crosses to influential model sire PRINCE OF AMBER, one of the top TB lines in ABC; notable real Thoroughbreds in her pedigree include Native Dancer, Northern Dancer, Restless Wind, Case Ace, Count Fleet, and Nasrullah--her dam line goes back to Equipoise. "Blueblooded" is a description that springs to mind. Her potential is unlimited!"
