

Davidson, Elizabeth

Elizabeth M. "Bud" Davidson, 89, of Caseville passed away Wednesday, May 29, 2002, at the Huron County Medical Care Facility. She was born on Jan. 28, 1913, in Caseville at the home of her parents, the late Charles and Pearl (Nuttel) Langley. In 1929, she was united in marriage to James Kelly in Bowling Green, Ohio and they made their home in Caseville. Mr. Kelly preceded her in death in 1965, and in 1966, she married Jay Davidson and they moved to San Diego. Mr. Davidson preceded her in death, also, in 1980. A short time later, Bud moved back to Caseville to be near her family. Bud was a homemaker all her life. She enjoyed traveling and spending time with her many friends. Her biggest joy was her family who will miss her very much. She is survived by daughters, Shirley Kraft and her husband, Arliss, and Patricia Schwalm and her husband, Gale, all of Caseville; grandchildren, Sheryl Gross of Essexville, Debra and Rob Henne of Bay Port, Tim and Beth Kraft and Kevin Kraft, all of Roscommon, Cynthia and Kirk Langley of Port Austin, and Pam Christner of Caseville; great-grandchildren, Tiffany, Trevor and wife, Pam, and Tory Gross, Tara Manyen, Kiel and Kaitlyn Henne, Kim Kraft, Chris, Matt, and Jamie Langley, Jason, Rebecca and Kayla Christner; a great-great-grandson, Jacob Manyen; two sisters, Beatrice Olson and Edith Wiese, both of Caseville. Preceding her in death were a grandson, Randy Schwalm; and brother, Charles "Bill" Langley. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday, June 3, 2002, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville. The Rev. James Nihiser, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church will officiate. Burial will be in Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation is from 2 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday and after 9 a.m. Monday at the chapel. Memorials may be made to the Alzheimer's Foundation. Words of condolence may be sent to www.champgnefuneralchapel.com.
