

Schember, Clare A.

Clare Alfred Schember, 65, of Cass City, passed away Thursday, Oct. 29, 2009 at Amazing Love AFC Home in Caro.

Clare was born Jan. 16, 1944 in Pigeon, son of the late Walter and Eleanor (Lucht) Schember. He worked in manufacturing, was a big NASCAR fan, enjoyed yard work, carpentry and especially time with his family. He served in the U.S. Army in Vietnam.

Clare is survived by his wife, Eva; children, Christine Huizar of Unionville, Jim Schember of Sebawaing, Jody (Woody) Juzek of Owendale, James Clark of Texas, Karen Feldhouse of Elkton, Debra Kay Clark of Ohio, Kevin (Kim) Clark of Coronna, Michelle Tkacz of California, and Michael (Jamie) Tkacz and Joseph (Rhonda) Tkacz, both of Owendale; seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. Monday, Nov. 2, 2009, with Pastor Cameron Steele, of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Caro officiating. Honoring Clare's request, cremation has taken place. Honor service by the U.S. Army and the Caro VFW Post. Arrangements by Thabet Funeral Home, 6255 Main St. in Cass City.

Memorials may be made to Greater Horizons, 1055 Broadway, Suite 130, Kansas City, MO 64105.