

Without Obedience

Cody Shay Benoît

While reading Matthew 1-3, the birth of Christ, my eyes were open to the importance of obedience.

Without the obedience of...

Joseph: (not abandoning ship because of his fear when Mary became pregnant through the Holy Spirit)

The Wise Men: (not returning to Herod with word of where Jesus was)

Had any of these people decided to disregard the voice of God, what could have happened?

I am challenged today to walk in obedience to what God is saying to me.

Walk by faith, even when what He says might be scary.

How cool is it that Mary, Joseph, the wise men, and so many others played a role in making HIS Story happen.

I could only hope that I wouldn't have screwed up "the plan" in my own doubt and unbelief. Grateful for those who came before me and trusted God enough to trust and obey Him
