

Georgena Elizabeth Stewart, 96, resident of Port Austin, died Thursday, May 24, 2012 at Huron Medical Care Facility in Bad Axe.

She was born Jan. 22, 1916, in Grindstone to the late George and Elizabeth (McNicol) Stewart.

Georgena graduated from Port Hope High School. She was a parishioner of the St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin and was a member of the Grindstone-Port Hope Sportsman Club. She was employed at the Port Austin Level Factory for many years.

Georgena is survived by two great-nieces, Deanna Carpenter and Patricia Forth, both of Warren; one great-nephew, Gregory Brown of Port Austin; two great-great-nieces; and three great-great-great-nephews. She was the "greatest" aunt ever.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Margaret Miller; brother-in-law, Earnie Miller; niece, Elizabeth "Betty" Miller Brown; and one great-nephew, John Carpenter.

Mass of Christian Burial will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 26, 2012 from St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin. Father Nate Harburg will officiate. Burial will take place in St. Michael's Cemetery.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. until the time of service on Saturday at the church.

Memorials may be made to the family discretionary fund or St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin.

MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe is handling the arrangements.
