AWIP's Third Quarterly Meeting of 2019

Moving from What You Do to Who You Are

With Charlotte Strickland

Thursday, September 19, 2019, 11:30 am – 1:00 pm

Mosaic Templars Cultural Center | 501 W. 9th Street | Little Rock, Arkansas 72201

Please join us for an interactive session on striking the critical balance of what you DO with who you ARE. The more consistent - the more effective you are as a professional! This session will encourage you to think about your personal values, and in particular, what you value as a professional and how those values are reflected in your work responsibilities and interactions with colleagues.

Reservations are required by Friday, September 16, 2019, and may be made online at www.ArkansasWomenInPower.org. All reservations will be confirmed via email by Tuesday, September 17. If you make a reservation and do not receive confirmation by that date, please email President@ArkansasWomenInPower.org.

Charlotte Strickland (Strickly Speaking) A native of Little Rock, Arkansas Charlotte earned a Business degree from the University of Central Arkansas and a Masters degree in Higher Education from the University of South Carolina. For thirty-six years Charlotte has worked in Higher Education coordinating Orientation, Ethics and Leadership academic courses, Greek training and Leadership training seminars. In 1989, Charlotte was invited to join the company, Designs for Development, specializing in training student leaders. She traveled across the country working with students and university employees. In 2002, Charlotte founded her own company, Strickly Speaking. In addition to college campuses, her audiences include churches, civic groups, state/federal agencies, and corporations. Charlotte currently serves as UCA's Director of Professional Development and Training. She provides campus-wide training on subjects such as Diversity, Customer Service, Workplace Harassment and Supervisory Skills.

Charlotte enjoys speaking immensely and approaches each audience with energy, enthusiasm, and sincerity. Her goal is for each person to leave the presentation with personal value, a renewed spirit and hope for whatever facet of life an individual is dealing with.

Charlotte and her husband, Mark, reside in Conway, Arkansas. They have three grown children and a golden doodle named Obadiah (Obie). In her free time, Charlotte enjoys hiking, shopping flea markets, and spending time with her family. She is active in her church and several UCA student organizations.
