📍 Lima, Peru

DAY 2: Monday, May 17

Welcome to Lima

Morning Welcome and Orientation with your National Guide to receive additional information about Peru as well as today's activities.

Begin your explorations of Lima starting with their main avenues, boulevards, and squares of Colonial Lima. First, visit San Francisco Convent built in the 17th century, and its "Catacombs" the ancient underground cemetery of Lima. Then, stop off at the Main Square to explore on foot and admire the exteriors of the Government Palace, the Cathedral of Lima, and the City Hall, all examples of Lima's still-present colonial architectural opulence.

Late this morning visit Huaca Pucllana, a vast network of open plazas and beguiling ancient stone masonry that forms a multilayered, towering pyramid, sitting proudly among the now urbanized district of Miraflores, one of Lima's trendiest neighborhoods. Once the religious and administrative center for the coastal people of the Lima Culture (prevalent in the region from 150 to 700 A.D.) though later evolving into a vast cemetery for the Ychma people (900 – 1400 A.D.), Huaca Pucllana is a rare example of a well-preserved, sizeable ancient archaeological site in the heart of a modern-day, bustling city.

Lunch will be provided at Huaca Pucllana's restaurant.

This afternoon, head to the Pueblo Libre District and visit the Larco Museum, an eighteenth-century Viceregal mansion that houses more than 3,000 years of Peru's pre-Columbian history. The museum boasts a supremely fine collection of gold and silver jewelry and worship paraphernalia that demonstrates the superb skill of ancient Peruvian gold and silversmiths. The visit will be greatly enriched by the curator of the museum, who will provide in-depth explanations and serve as a unique conduit to the past. All areas are illuminated to showcase the beauty of the museum's pieces.

Dinner will be provided this evening at the Café del Museo.

Overnight: Casa Andina Premium (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

DAY 3: Tuesday, May 18

Professional Interaction

Those attending the professional sessions will interact this morning and afternoon with various medical experts. Hosts will discuss current information on prevalent illnesses, accidents, and needs for healthcare in Peru; the overall healthcare delivery system (traditional & non-traditional) in Peru; how the delivery of healthcare is organized and delivered; type of healthcare providers, their roles, and any provider shortage issues encountered in Peru; overall strengths and limitations of Peru's healthcare delivery system; and future projected needs and plans.

Lunch will be provided this afternoon.

Later today visit a clinic, hospital or nursing school, such as the Facultad de Enfermería de la Universidad Cayetano Heredia (UPCH), to meet with faculty and students and continue your discussions.

Guest program

Today, guests will explore the Bohemian neighborhood of Barranco, an area called home by countless artists, photographers, and authors. We will walk along peculiar streets lined with Republican houses, admire the splendid views, and visit the Puente de los Suspiros (Bridge of Sighs). Continue the visit to the Mario Testino Museum – MATE - one of the most influential and well-known fashion and portrait photographers of their time, in his permanent exhibition you can appreciate his emblematic photographs. Then, visit Las Pallas; a 'smugglers den' of artistic items and artefacts ranging from the coast, the Andes and the Amazon in origin. After lunch discover colonial art in the Barbosa-Stern Collection. Since 1966, Eduardo Barbosa and his wife Silvia Stern have collected an impressive compilation of Spanish colonial art from the Peruvian Viceregal Period. They have a passion and acquired, restored, and preserved countless objects that they found to be of historical documentary or artistic importance.

Explore the city tonight with dinner on your own.

Overnight: Casa Andina Premium (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast & Lunch

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 4: Wednesday, May 19

Fly to Cusco

Immediately after breakfast, depart the hotel for your flight to Cusco. Elevated approximately 11,100 feet above sea level, Cusco is a World Heritage Site and the former capital of the Inca Empire.

Aranwa Cusco is a 5-star boutique hotel that combines the essence of history, luxury and well-being, located in the heart of the Inca city. Cusco Boutique is also a hotel-museum built in an old colonial mansion that has been divided into seven strategic areas, transporting guests to the 16th century.

Lunch will be provided this afternoon.

This afternoon the group will step back in time with a visit to the fortress of Sacsayhuaman, a colossal structure of enormous stones, carved and fitted together with incredible precision; Qenqo, the religious center; enjoy a panoramic view of Puca-Pucara, the red fortress; and then visit Tambomachay with its water fountains. Afterwards, tour the Imperial City. Stroll through the Main Square to discover the Cathedral and admire its exquisite vestibules and priceless paintings from the Cusco School of the 17th and 18th centuries.

Finish your explorations with a visit to one of the most impressive complexes of Incan Cusco. Coricancha (Qorikancha) contains the Temple of the Sun, the most sacred site in the Inca religion. Dedicated to the worship of the Sun God Inti (and others) the temple's interior walls were said to have been covered in gold. Learn about the Incan people, religion and history of the complex as you explore the architectural remains.

Dinner will be provided this evening.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 5: Thursday, May 20

Professional Program

This morning professionals will continue the professional exchange in Cusco. Compare and contrast modern medicine with the use of herbal medicine as well as the prevalence of traditional medicines and other complementary and alternative therapies.

Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant today.

This afternoon focus on the use of natural medicine and its benefits during a visit to a facility like Casa del Sol Integral Medicine Center. Dr. Gladys Oblitas Zanabria, who is in charge, also works as a homeopath so will talk to the group about her beliefs and use of natural substances such as plants and minerals.

Guest program

Today, guests will start your day with a cooking class that will share the chef's unique vision of food and culture of Peru and how they use regional products such as quinoa, yellow peppers and trout in their dishes. Prepare a few dishes and enjoy your creations for lunch. This afternoon you will explore the artistic and bohemian neighborhood of San Blas, home to many artists. You will have time to visit some workshops and contemplate the artist's works as you explore and chat with them. Finish your explorations with a visit to the San Blas Church, built in 1563 on top of an Inca Sanctuary. Famous for its beauty, the pulpit was carved from a single cedar tree.

Dinner is on your own this evening.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast & Lunch

📍 Sacred Valley, Peru

DAY 6: Friday, May 21

Community & Rural Clinic Visits

After breakfast, head to the Sacred Valley via bus (1.5-hour drive). First stop is to visit a rural community school and village. Donations for the school children are of course welcome. Clothes to keep them warm, shoes, and medicines are hard to come by here. In this area the cold is intense, and kids don't always have proper clothes to wear during the winter. Your support will be appreciated!

Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant today in the Sacred Valley.

This afternoon the group will visit with staff at the Ollantaytambo Rural Medical Clinic. Spend time learning about access to care issues facing the clinic and their clientele, many of which are from the indigenous community living in the valley. Discuss the services they can provide and challenges they face due to limited funding. Learn how the socioeconomic conditions lead to issues with malnutrition, poor overall health and increased morbidity and mortality rates due to higher rates of preventable illnesses.

Check into your local hotel and overnight. Casa Andina Sacred Valle. They have onsite dining, a spa, free Wi-Fi, coffee shop, laundry and at night there are bonfires and you can view the stars and planets in the sky in the planetarium (additional fee). Guest rooms have coffee, minibar, safe, hairdryers, robe/slippers and an iron along with a balcony.

Dinner will be provided at the hotel this evening.

Overnight: Casa Andina Sacred Valle (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Machu Picchu, Peru

DAY 7: Saturday, May 22

Explore Machu Picchu

Check out and head to Machu Picchu this morning via train. Please note: Today's itinerary includes moderate physical activity with some hiking. For those with mobility concerns, guides will assist with adjusting your activity level accordingly.

Enjoy a privately guided tour of the archaeological ruins of Machu Picchu with a specialized guide. Known as one of the most beautiful and enigmatic ancient sites in the world, the Andean mountaintop was used by the Inca people as the foundation of hundreds of stone structures, with construction starting in the early 1400s. Your local guide will share cultural knowledge and insights. Explore the terraces, corridors, temples, and other sacred places within the citadel.

Lunch will be provided at the Sanctuary Lodge after your morning tour and lecture with your guide. Stop at the central market to look for local souvenirs near the train station.

Take the train back to Cusco late this afternoon where you will check back into your Cusco hotel and have time for a late dinner on your own arrangement. Food and beverage options will also be available for purchase on the train.

Dinner is by individual arrangement.

Overnight: Casa Andinia Sacred Valle (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast & Lunch

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 8 Sunday, May 23

Cultural Explorations

Today you will spend the day with the villagers of the Cuyuni community to learn about their day-to-day life through demonstration and participation in daily activities. Arrive at the community to be greeted by traditional music played by musicians as you walk with the villagers to participate in a ritual offering of gratitude to Pachamama (Mother Earth) and the Apus, mountain protector deities. Meet with women in their characteristic colorful dress and learn about the herding practices of the villagers. Next, learn about the agricultural routine: planting, harvesting, rope braiding, plowing the fallow earth and loading the llamas with champa, cut and dried sod that is a primary source of fuel. Here in the fields you will see a demonstration of a huatia featuring flavorful Andean potatoes cooked on wood inside of a small, dried earth oven.

Participate later today in the Llama Pilluy ceremony, or Llama Festival, with dancing and music that commemorates the llamas as principal work companions and cargo carriers for the community. Visit the weavers in a community work session and learn how they spin the animal fiber and use dyes made from natural products from the region. See weaving on back strap looms, the traditional technique used to produce some of the most beautiful textiles of the region.

Finally, we will share a delicious meal with the villagers, cooked from a variety of local products from the region before heading back to the hotel.

Say goodbye as you reflect and share memories over your farewell dinner at Map Café this evening.
