4	1 st paragraph, 9 th line from the bottom	..., which from time to time , through a total transformation...	... which each time , through a total transformation...	“von Mal zu Mal” actually means “from one moment/time to the next”, see this example: https://www.dict.cc/?s=von+Mal+zu+Mal+besser But the English, “from time to time” means “sometimes, but not often”.
32	4 th line from the bottom	“...until it [the human body] dies again and lapses into the¹ death ”.	“...until it [the human body] dies again and succumbs to death .”	‘lapses into death’ is confusing as it could mean that this same body is coming back. We would recommend ‘succumb’ as the clearest choice in this context.
44	2 nd paragraph, line 6	..., that is not in the position to recognise itself and to be itself mighty of the creation and of the creative in general.	..., that is not in the position to recognise itself and to be in control of/to master the creation and of the creative in general.	https://www.dict.cc/?s=mächtig+sein

526	Title and first line beneath	Aim	end, culmination point, fulfillment, highest level, determination	We have used 'Ziel' in our translations and added this to the glossary: " Ziel [tsi:l] (p/ Ziele, Zielen): For Billy, the English terms 'aim' or 'goal' are simply not acceptable as translations for 'Ziel'. Translations such as 'end', 'highest level', 'fulfilment', 'determination' or 'culmination point' describe it better, but these are still inadequate, and so the German 'Ziel' has been carried into the English translation.
532	Line 11	... breaking down of the sorrow...	... breaking down due to the sorrow...	So the sorrow is not broken down, but one breaks down due to the sorrow.

568	2 nd line under title	... , not only have to cope with the suffering and pain as well as...	... , not only have to cope with the Leid and pain as well as...	Mariann wrote this when we translated the meditation book (and it is in the glossary of Intro to Meditation): "According to Billy, 'Leid' has the meaning of a 'psychical-morale, negative state' and 'Leiden' means 'ununderstanding, misunderstanding and so on, which affects the morale and psyche'. 'Leid' and 'Leiden' means that the event affects the psyche and therefore is not to be translated with 'suffering' or 'affliction' which pertain more to the physical body. The verb is "leiden", which means to be psychically-morally in a negative state."
