Biography

Earl A. Limberger, age 83, of Sebewaing, MI passed away on October 3, 2023. We have lost the backbone of our family. Earl was born on December 8th, 1939, at home in Pigeon, MI to Roland and Neva Olga (Lutat) Limberger. Earl was pulled out of school after the 8th grade to work the family farm while also working at The Canning Factory in Pigeon. Earl's work ethic kept him busy his whole life. He went on to be an electrician. Earl worked on the farm, The Canning Company, Evans Product, Sebewaing Industries, and Tower Automotive where he retired after many years. Earl's love for woodworking was apparent when you were in his home. Earl made beautiful cabinets and tables. Also, his love for music was self-taught. If he heard it, he could play it. He played guitar, organ, and accordion. He played in the church when he and Vivian were young. Everyone who knew Earl felt his big heart and giving nature. Many friends that needed a tool or a part usually would stop at Earl's, and he was always willing to help. The skills he had acquired enabled him to help so many people throughout his life. Earl married the love his life, Vivian Elizabeth Nutt in the Assembly of God Church in Sebewaing on February 28th, 1959.
