

McGuire, Bette L.

Bette L. McGuire, 73, of Sebewaing passed away on Sunday, Aug. 2, 2009 at Huron Medical Care Facility in Bad Axe.

Bette was born in Ohio on Sept. 12, 1935 the daughter of the late Clifford and Florence (Vititoe) Shuff.

She is survived by her husband, Danny McGuire, of Port Austin; one brother, Dave and Gloria Shuff of Flint; four sisters, Mary and Bob Cram of Jackson, Shirley and Bob Lakies of North Carolina, Phyllis and Junior Nichols of Manton, and Lynda and Danny Rulhling of East Jordan, Mi.

Bette was all about family. She would often hold large family gatherings on Sundays as well as on holidays for huge meals and card games.

She had a total of 10 children, seven boys, Stanley and Joyce Rinnert of Elkton, Tom and Tammy Rinnert of Owendale, Robert and Kathy Rinnert of Bad Axe, Kenneth (Mike) and Judy Rinnert of Elkton, Clifford (Joe) Rinnert with special friend, Lynn, of Bad Axe, Harry and Jenny Elliott of Owendale, Floyd Elliott of St. Louis; and three daughters, Cheryl and Edward Fritz of Sebewaing, Vickie and Robert Scott of Florida and Bonnie and Ronnie Smith of Bad Axe. Bette also is survived by 28 grandchildren; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Cremation has already taken place. There will be no memorial services.