

Steven received his Bachelors of Music from the University of West Georgia, where he holds a Performance degree in Percussion and a Minor in Piano. While attending College, He became president or the National Music Fraternity Phi Mu Alpha where he served for 2 years.

He was one of the founding members of the Chattahoochee Pipes and Drums pipe band in Roswell, GA In the mid-90's, as well as, The Zoots and the Swinging Suits, which He played professionally as a Southern Tracks Records as a recording artist. The Zoots opened for such acts as The Commodores, Travis Tritt and K.C. and the Sunshine Band. Steven has also performed with such names as Les Dudek (The Allman Brothers Band), Mike Pinera (Iron Butterfly) and Riff West (Molly Hatchet) .

Steven is from the teaching lineage of John Lawless (Atlanta Symphony, Chattanooga Symphony and Spirit of Atlanta) as well as, Mike Cebulski and Mike Back (Spirit of Atlanta and McEachern High School). He owned the Music Room, a music lesson studio, for several years around the year 2002-2006.

Steven is currently a free-lance musician and the principal percussionist at NorthWest Christian Church, his pop/original band; the LB Collective and his Blues band; Willard and the Rats.

His desire is to be a positive role-model in his student's lives by inspiring musical spirituality and passion through percussion education.