

Putting the Pieces Together

Queen's University
Tribes TLC[®]
Training

- learn real Classroom Management skills from experienced Tribes teachers
- used by many Ontario schools
- cooperative learning
- community building
- participants engage in hands-on activities
- develop practical strategies covering JK to 12
- skills that recruiters are seeking
- extensive electronic follow up Resources & more

Registration form available at www.edubeneve.ca

The Learning Community Process (TLC[®]) is a most effective community building and cooperative learning tool for helping prepare Pre-K–12 teacher candidates, teachers and administrators to create dynamic learning communities and to promote academic achievement in all subject areas, and It Works! Learn strategies that give teachers active tools to use multiple intelligence, brain compatible learning and cooperative methods in differentiated lesson planning. Academic achievement and social-emotional development are enhanced through the process of building Learning Communities.

The Tribes TLC[®] 24 Hour Basic Training – April 17, 18, 19 - 2020

Friday, 4:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. (Sign in - 3:45 p.m.)
Saturday , 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Sunday, 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Location: McArthur Hall, Room 342AB Tentative

Email registration to Donna Bennett at: edubeneve@hotmail.com

Supported by "Teaching Excellence Fund" -- Includes registration with CenterSource, certification, extensive electronic handouts, resource book, light snacks & more.

Training is open to 1st & 2nd year Queen's education students.
For availability & more details, email Donna Bennett or call (647) 624-5420