

Worlds Within Worlds

There are worlds within worlds.
There is you and me, girl.
There are worlds within worlds.
Three is you and me, girl.
Together,
Come whatever.

There wheels within wheels.
There are circles within circles.
Spinning 'round; up and down.
Give and take; ebb and flow.
In and out; 'round about.
Come and go; yes and no.
There are worlds within worlds within worlds.

There are worlds within worlds.
There is you and me within each other.
There are worlds within worlds within worlds within worlds.
Together,
Forever.

Now, I love you.
It's as simple as that.
And, you love me too.
And, that is that.
