

Building Memories

Across

- 2 This red sandstone building has housed multiple apartments since 1898.
- 4 A gentlemen's club in downtown Utica that had such esteemed members as Elihu Root, Francis Kernan and Horatio Seymour.
- 5 Educational institution, opened in 1936, was built partially by Works Progress Administration funds.
- 6 A religious building in downtown Utica that features a stone spire and Tiffany window.
- 7 Built in 1758 to guard a vital link between the Hudson River and Great Lakes.
- 10 Built in 1853, this civic building featured a bell tower and clock.
- 11 This Palladian-style building on Elizabeth St. has been the scene of many legal cases.
- 13 The civic center of Rome grew around this imposing building built in 1894.
- 15 Formerly a private residence in downtown Utica, it became headquarters for an organization promoting the moral and mental improvement of women.

Down

- 1 This Tuscan villa once was the home of Frederick and Rachel Proctor.
- 3 The Proctors donated the land on which this building stands. Opening in 1904 it has served readers for over 100 years.
- 6 This complex manufactured fancy woolen goods, and helped Utica become a major source for textile production.
- 8 Dominated by a grand portico, this was the first hospital to serve patients with mental illness under the auspices of New York State. Affectionately known as...
- 9 Built in neo-classical revival style and once the First Church of Christ Scientist, this building now is home to the Oneida County...
- 12 Home of the NY Central Railroad, built in 1914, this building boasts its extensive use of marble.
- 14 Designed by Philip Johnson, this modern building has received many design awards. Abbr.