

Stop, Look, and Listen

When was the last time you stopped and considered life in general? When was the last time you looked at your own life and made an inventory of where you are and where you're going? When was the last time you listened to God rather than your own wisdom?

Is that not what the Lord would have us do? "What is man, that thou are mindful of him? Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?" (Hebrews 2:6); "Come now, ye that say, today or tomorrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain: whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." (James 4:13-14); "Seek ye Jehovah while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near: let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto Jehovah, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith Jehovah" (Isaiah 55:6-8). ret
