

SYDNEY SMITH

Company Choreographer

Sydney has been dancing for 16 years and teaching and choreographing for 10 years. She loves teaching and helping others grow, her passion is to help teach and spread the HipHop culture!

Her training started at the age of 11, in Hip Hop, Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Point, Lyrical, Contemporary, Jazz Funk, Musical Theater, Bollywood, Heels and Acro. She is certified in the certificate program at IDA (International Dance Academy) Hollywood.

At the age of 16 she started professionally dancing and working with many artists such as (Mandi Rose, Guy Tang, Jessica Sutta, Katrina Stuart, DaBaby and more!) and choreographers such as (G. Madison, Shane Sparks, Rosero McCoy, Liezel Marie, Brian Drake, and more!) She's worked on music videos, live tours, tv, musicals and more!

She is also part of a non profit organization called DanceEngagements and works on Dance Staff for USA (United Spirit Association). Sydney is still currently a working dancer and is still working on many upcoming projects.

She gets inspired from her students everyday and loves seeing the process of growth in their dancing. One of her main goals is to help her students at ASPIRE reach their goals!
