Suit Up for the Future High School Summer Legal Institute and Intern Program

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the LSBA Pipeline to Diversity and Outreach Subcommittee has made the difficult decision to cancel the Suit Up for the Future High School Summer Legal Institute and Intern Program scheduled on June 15-26 and July 6-10, 2020 at the Louisiana State Bar Association.

All applications submitted for the 2020 program will be deferred to June 2021 (with no further action needed from the applicant). Applicants will be notified.

If you have any questions, please contact the team in the LSBA Member Outreach and Diversity Department at diversity@lsba.org.

Federal Bar Association Zoom Justice Camp and Essay Contest

1. Justice Camp: The 2020 FBA Justice Camp will be held virtually May 4-8, 2020. The program will be live streamed daily at 10:30 a.m. on the NOFBA's YouTube Channel, and last approximately one hour per day. You must register in order to participate in the daily livestream. Complete this registration form. All sessions will be available later as recordings.

Full details here: <http://nofba.org/2020/04/16/justice-camp/>

2. Essay Contest: The top three winners in each division will receive cash prizes! This year's prompt is: "The 19th Amendment turns 100: Why is voting still important?" Entries will be accepted through Monday, May 4.

The contest is open to middle and high school students in two divisions, with scholarships awarded for first, second, and third place. For more information, including case decisions, eligibility requirements, judging criteria, and entry instructions, click here.
