Stand Ready! For the Son of Man will come when you do not expect him.

Opening Prayer

O God our origin and our deepest desire

Uncover for us once more the source of the faith which you have placed deep within our hearts.

Help us always be ready to welcome your unexpected coming and to work in this present age for the treasures that will never pass away. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Introduction to Readings and The Gospel

In the first reading from the book of Wisdom, we are reminded that God has always come to save his people and offers us hope in our difficulties so that we can sing his praises with all the generations that have gone before us.

Our Second reading reminds us that like Abraham we are invited to put our faith in God and trust him even when nothing seems to be working out.

In the Gospel Jesus tells us the parable of the Good and Faithful Servant who is always ready and prepared no matter how long he has to wait.
