Non-Fiction

Travels With George

In 2000, after her children set off for new lives on the other side of the globe, Vivien Fallows, along with a trusty suitcase called George, embarked on a solo travel mission.

At the request of her husband, Vivien shared the stories in a diary, which became the charming and chatty Travels with George in which she hopes that her journey will inspire others to take the plunge and travel solo.

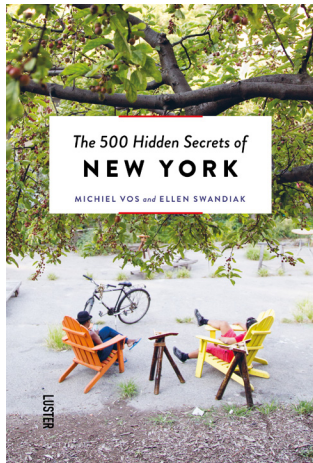

Amsterdam Exposed

Fascinated by the women in the Red Light district's windows and determined to learn more about them as human beings -- their histories, hopes, and dreams -- readers follow David Wienir as he wanders through the city's twilight world, immerses himself in Dutch culture, attempts to befriend prostitutes without becoming a customer, and ultimately undergoes a paradigm-shifting transformation regarding the world's oldest profession.

An American abroad story, and also a love story; Amsterdam Exposed is an uplifting tragedy, full of humour from beginning to end.

BOOK LIST

Sketchbook

Barcelona Sketchbook

This stunning book gives visitors and residents to the iconic city an insight into a wealth of sights, both grand and intimate in scale. Many facets of the Catalonia capital and surroundings are recorded here, as Graham Byfield strolls with his sketchpad through the Ramblas, the glories of Antoni Gaudí, the great ceremonial buildings, and cafés and parks full of character. On the way, with a few pencil strokes and splashes of watercolour, he captures scenes of daily life, as well as a plethora of architectural wonders dating from the Middle Ages to the present day.

Accompanying the paintings and sketches are observations and notes handwritten by the artist, as well as a learned and informative introduction to Barcelona and its various areas by heritage expert Marcus Binney.
