

I'LL MEET YOU HALFWAY

By John Lipinski

I'll meet you halfway, half way back home
Cuz, I'm giving in, I'm so alone
Well, I've been too damn stubborn, will I ever learn
That I need you too much, to lose you again

My pride is the key, what happened to me
I just lost my lover, to know one but me
I always stand firm, and won't give an inch
But what do I gain, I'm goin' insane, without you here

Chorus & Solo

So don't give up now, Cuz, I'm gonna try
I still need you, lover, right here, by my side
I'll give you my best, let our love do the rest
I'll leave Mesquite, you leave St. Pete, and meet me back home

Chorus
