Corky Mizer and Steve Fisher

San Diego, CA, May 1, 2015 – A fun day was had for all who participated in the 15th Annual STAR/PAL Celebrity Waiter Luncheon. Local celebrities teamed up with local law enforcement by serving as “celebrity waiters” to benefit underserved youth. Corky Mizer, owner of Corky’s Pest Control was one of the many famous locals who attended the annual event where every dollar raised went to STAR/PAL which works to keep kids safe, in school and away from crime and violence.

Hundreds of people attended to support and make donations for photo opportunities and autographs at the Jacobs Meetings & Events facility. The luncheon catered by True Roots Catering was served by police officers, firefighters, SWAT team members, city officials, athletes and coaches. The celebrity wait staff included, Chargers defensive end Ricardo Mathews, Chargers outside linebacker Colton Underwood, former Chargers wide receiver Seyi Ajirootutu, San Diego State University men’s basketball head coach Steve Fisher, San Diego County Sheriff Bill Gore and San Diego Police Chief Shelly Zimmerman.

Supporters bid on a five-hour SWAT team training day, Chargers VIP game and Padres VIP game. Many personalities posed for photos such as Chargers linebacker Manti Teo, Padres sportscaster Mark Grant, Chargers cheerleaders, SDSU cheerleaders and Padres ball girls. Highlights were photos taken with Shaquille O’Neal’s size 32 shoe and Colton Underwood providing a piggyback ride to attendee Alvenesia Sims around the room.

Corky Mizer is proud to support STAR/PAL and other local charities such as The San Diego Nice Guys, Casa De Amparo and the Spirit of Liberty Foundation.
