Matthew 2:1-4, 5-9, 10-12

Leader: "Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is He who has been born of King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him.' When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born."

People: "Praise be to God that Christ has arrived among men!"

Leader: "They said to him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for this is what has been written by the prophet: And you, Bethlehem of Judea; land of Judah, are by no means least among the leaders of Judah; for out of you shall come forth a ruler who will shepherd My people Israel.' Then Herod secretly called the magi and determined from them the exact time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, 'Go and search carefully for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, so that I too may come and worship Him.' After hearing the king, they went their way; and the star, which they had seen in the east, went on before them until it came and stood over the place where the Child was."

People: "Praise be to God, that those who are faithful and alert will see the Messiah, Christ Jesus."

Leader: "When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy. After coming into the house they saw the Child with Mary His mother; and they fell to the ground and worshipped Him. Then, opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, the magi left for their own country by another way."

People: "Praise be to God, Christ is here. While Herod tried to kill the Messiah, the Lord had other plans in mind. Jesus Christ, God in human flesh, fully God and yet fully man, was to be the Savior of His people. He will come to take away the sins of the world, to redeem His people. He will give sight to the blind, free the prisoners, and release us from our sins. Praise be to God!"
