New for the 2018 Contest

- Online Registration and Payment of Entry Fees.

Located on our website is a link to Event Smart registration that is integrated with PayPal. A contestant can register for the contest by purchasing a ticket for the division(s) in which they choose to compete. On the day(s) of the contest, you check-in at the Division Registration table and pick-up your contest packet; fast, simple and efficient.

Don't choose to register online; no worry, you can register by completing the Contestant's Application, paying your entry fee by check and sending the forms to us by U.S. Mail.

You also have the option to register by e-mail. Complete the Contestant's Application; scan the application page into a JPG or PDF file and send it to us in your e-mail. You would then pay your entry fee on arrival at the Division's Registration table. There is no additional charge if you register by email.

You can still register the day of the contest. Please note that the entry fee increases by $ 2.50.
