Goat – 羊 (未)

2015, 2003, 1991, 1979, 1967

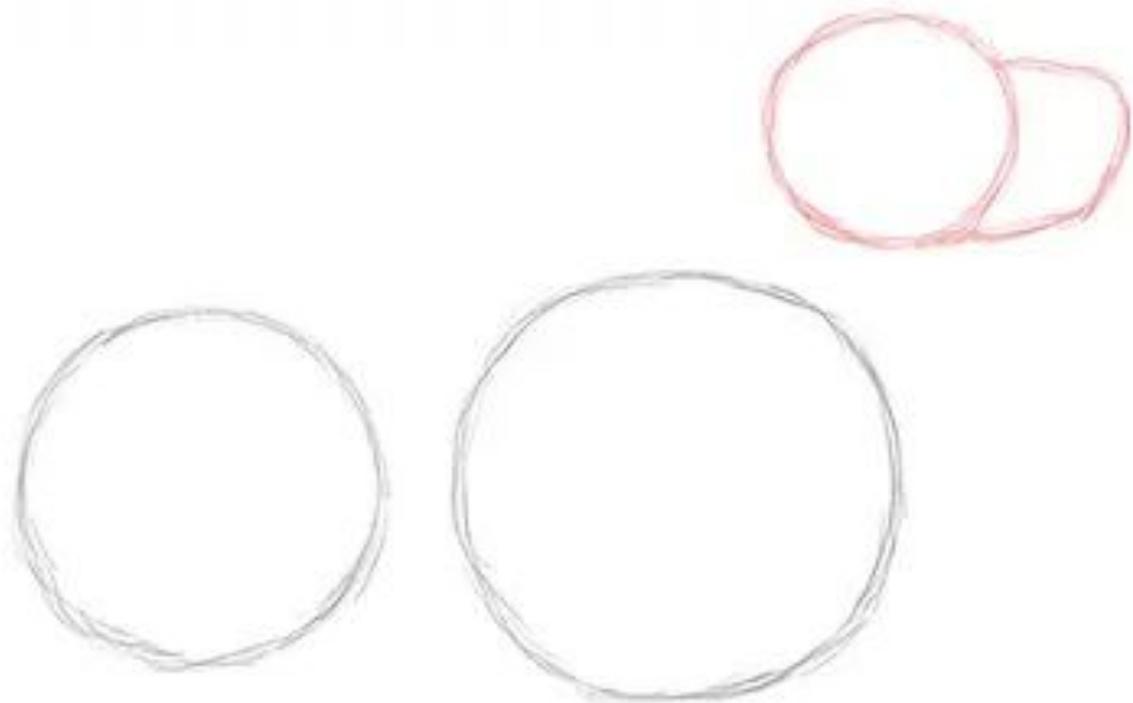

In Chinese culture, the goat is a much-beloved domesticated animal that has been in a companion to Chinese people for Millennia. The goat has been endowed with propitious meanings due to both its gentle character as well as the fact that the Chinese words for “goat” and “sun” sound similar.

This paper folding fan has guards and ribs coated with jinxing lacquer. One side of its panel features the modern calligrapher Wu Xinru’s running-script calligraphy, while the other is embellished with a painting of three goats, an auspicious token of fortune.
