Rental Agreement Details

Renter is ultimately responsible for the behavior of their guests at their functions. When it is rented for a function, for example, they're accepting responsibility for returning everything they are renting and using to the venue in the same condition it was in before their main event occurred. Because of this, White Diamond Lavender Farms LLC. (WDLF) requires a one million dollar liability policy from the renter for the event weekend. This is easily obtained by simply calling your insurance agent. Certificate of this policy must be given to WDLF 30 days prior to event.
