

RLC FARMS LLC

REGISTERED PUREBRED BULLS
FOR SALE

It has been a long time that we have had a larger group of bulls to sell as we are very fussy on which one stays intact. We generally only keep a couple. These listed are what are still available. You can't go wrong when you use an RLC Farms animal. Just ask our many repeat customers.

PENDING

Because of the demand for RLC stock, we require $1000 deposit before we can mark your bull pending. We were getting to the point where people had what we were offering so we decided to A.I. a few years. We definitely got our money's worth of fine animals and are able to pass the genetics down to you. We value our customers and only want bulls that are the quality you need to better your herd. Thank you for looking and we hope to be doing business with you! Please keep checking back for updates.
