We are experienced personal assistants that develop lasting relationships and friendships with our clients. Many of our customers are seniors or folks with health issues that need assistance with errands, grocery shopping, general help at home, help with pets, transportation to appointments, accompaniment with doctors, help with financial and insurance administration, and other daily tasks. Other clients are busy parents and professionals that just need an extra hand from time to time—whether they are traveling and need someone to take care of their home or pets, or just need some extra assistance with their to-do list. We offer very reasonable rates, are flexible to work with your schedule, and most importantly, give you peace of mind.

WHO WE ARE

We can when you can't.®

Need some extra help? Let us do that! Our services include general help for seniors, grocery shopping and delivery, running errands, transportation, help with pets, vacation home care, computer and smart phone help, and more.

While we can support one-time requests, our specialty is developing relationships and serving clients that need our services on an ongoing basis.

We are fully insured and have many great references.

"Kelley and Susan do such a great job with helping my Mom. With a family and travel for my job, Let Us Do That really takes the burden off by providing daily services like going to the grocery, doctor appointments and walking my mother's dog. They are the next best thing to family."

"I would like to add my thanks for your capable service. Especially being handicapped, it's very nice having someone I can rely on to help me filter through paper work and understand doctor's instructions. You are always prompt and get me to my destination on time. In addition, I do appreciate your patience in finding obscure items at the grocery that I think I have to have! Your friendship is invaluable."

OUR CUSTOMERS

"My husband is bed-ridden, my knees hurt when I walk on hard surfaces, and I hate grocery shopping. Now I have Kelley and Susan, always smiling and cheerful, bringing my groceries every week. All I have to do is make the list and put the groceries in the cupboard. I've also realized it is so nice to have someone else pick up prescriptions or drug store items."

Sandy Welch

"With our recent relocation to the area I had no support system to transport my teenager to and from appointments.

Let Us Do That stepped in and helped provide safe and reliable transportation as needed. My teenager felt comfortable and looked forward to her time with Kelley. There is no doubt that I will be using Let Us Do That in the future!"
