Vol. 10 No. 3-4 ~
Autumn/Winter
2025

Photoed by his creator, Beverly Zimmer, model Arabian stallion Metropolitan experienced his first winter not long after coming into being in 1985. This remade Breyer PAM now has 40 winters under his belt, and counting...! Owned by Ardith Carlton, Metropolitan is one of the representatives of Zimmer's work in the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center at the Model Horse Museum.

A Word to the Fore: Catching Up After Difficult Days

Apologies for the lateness of this issue, all. We're beginning to get back on track after some months 'way beyond anything we've experienced before--and I don't just mean the weather (although going out on a minus-29-degree morning was something new, too!).

First of all, though, heartfelt thanks to Cheryl Ridge! We'd thought last issue would be the last we'd be able to produce using Marc/Lucidpress, as the timing of that online program's annual renewal came due at the same time as the Museum's summer property taxes and insurance...but as soon as she read our announcement, Cheryl was right there, offering to pay for the renewal! Thank you so, so much for making it possible for the Re-View to continue, Cheryl--you're the best!

Soon after that, there was a huge upheaval where I worked and other staff was fired or left, leaving me to work 60-hour weeks (salaried at 40, and no benefits). Shoehorning my second job into what little time remained didn't let much of anything else get done.

It was a heartbreaking choice, but at the turn of the year I finally decided to start looking elsewhere--and am excited to now be on the staff of a much larger area newspaper! The change in jobs, and gap in paychecks, again coincided with the Museum's quarterly insurance and twice-a-year property taxes--but thanks to a kind donation from Lois Bennington and folks' generous purchases of some model horses we partied with, we again made it through. Thank you again to all!

With life and livelihood getting a little more settled now, we're trying to get caught back up on the Re-View. The Autumn and Winter issues have been combined, and you'll find the results of the VCMEC Online World Championship's third leg in the first half of this combined issue, and the fourth leg results in the "Part B" second half, which will come out hopefully about a week after we get this first half out the door!

Then the Spring 2026 issue at the end of March will have the results of both the fifth and concluding sixth legs. Summer 2026, at the end of June, will have the overall results and announcement of the 2024-25 World Champions! The Autumn issue in September will be the commemorative issue for the Model Horse Museum, including a detailed list of thanks to everyone who's helped make it possible (along with an announcement of the Museum's first exhibit!). The 2026-27 VCMEC Online World Championships photo show series will begin in September, and the results of its first leg will be in the Winter 2026 issue in December, as usual. That's the plan!

Above is a glimpse at how things are coming along in the (extremely well insulated, we're pleased to report!) Museum. We've unpacked all the remakes and artist resins onto the open shelves in the VCMEC area to inventory them. Some of our boxes of OFs have been moved, but we're going to wait on the rest until the snow is gone. Much of the library has been moved after being logged into the Model Animal Hobby History Archive list (<http://www.vintagecustommodelequinecenter.org/model-animal-hobby-history-archive.html>). And the dozens of horses, harnesses, and vehicles created and donated by Loren Pribbernow are being re-hitched (we'd unhitched most of the horses from the vehicles for transport) and arranged on the shelves of the main exhibit room; after that we'll be working on signage for each of the pieces in this glorious gathering!

Thanks so much for your patience, folks. 'Til next, stay warm, and we'll see you next month!

-Sparky C.

Judge's Choices

Judge Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig picked several favorites from each division! Enjoy!

1960s/'70s DIVISION

WICKENDEN OSPREY (AC) ~ Welsh Sec. B stallion ~ CM by Cheryl Abelson and Cindy Derausseau in 1979

"Wickenden Osprey, a PAM done by Cheryl Abelson and Cindy Derausseau in 1979, remains one of our most iconic customs of all time. The quality of his customizing Cheryl did is unreal - everything is correct and how it should be. That level of finesse in '79? With those materials? Wow! Then the beautiful paint job and hair job by Cindy just took this guy right over the top, and right into our GOAT category. If ever a piece defined the '70s, I think he'd be a great candidate. Absolutely stunning!"

MELULU (CV) ~ Arabian filly ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1979

"I just love the little foal, Melulu! A PAF done by Julie Froelich in 1979, you can see all the greatness Julie was to become wrapped up in a beautiful little package.

Clearly, you see the technical skill and the artistry, but best of all, we see that fearless vision she had that just took her work to the next level so fast. Julie wasn't afraid of tackling anything unusual and we love her for it! And she didn't just tackle such things, she made them sing in her own special way, which is one of the many reasons why Julie remains one of our most iconic artists."

CASCADE MAIDEN (LK) ~ Appaloosa mare ~ CM by Michelle Grant in 1974

"Cascade Maiden, a CI. QHM repainted by Michelle Grant in 1974, is such a beautiful and important little piece! Understated — yes. Boring? Absolutely not. She's a study of a masterful finesse even at the very early stages of Michelle's career. Indeed, the sophistication and style here is unreal for the '70s — smooth paintwork, impeccable prepping, and an uncanny realism anachronistic for its time, all adding up into a little mare with a huge impact if you know what timeless quality really looks like."

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON (LoB) ~ Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s

"Dane Tyler Bennington, a Justin Morgan R/H by Laura Behning in the late '70s, is one of our greatest Vintage Customs of all time. I mean, you just gotta look at him to see his undeniable timeless quality and irresistible artistic appeal. You know, I never thought Laura got the attention she so richly deserved. She's truly one of our GOATs and I wish more people came to realize that. I mean we had people falling over themselves to get Strowger work — and rightly so — but Laura is right up there in that class. In fact, she's in a class by herself, she's so good, and this piece is a testament to that mastery that stands the test of time so brilliantly."

FLYING FARE (CM) ~ Thoroughbred mare ~ CM by D'Arry Jone Frank in 1978

"Flying Fare, a Kelso by D'Arry Jone Frank in 1978, is one of my favorite Vintage Customs. Now sure, her tail is gone, but her beauty and quality still shine through all the same. Really, I love how she's showing without her tail — I think it's so cool we're asked to appreciate her on her own terms and accept this little hiccup as part of her story. And the dappling technique used on her is so interesting, too! That must've been very time-consuming and tedious, but what a cool effect! Love this little mare!"

DARK PHOENIX (SS) ~ Trakehner gelding
~ CM by Beth Peart in 1979

"Dark Phoenix, a customized Pacer by Beth Peart in 1979, is just such a neat piece! That mold never really got the love it deserved because it's cool and has a very handsome head (though removing that blasted halter must've been a job in itself). Beth was all ambition when it came to customizing but she had the mad skillz to back it up. Indeed, she's created some of our most extreme expressions of our art form, and did it well to boot. Her scope, especially for that time with those materials, is stunning, and this piece is a fabulous example of it."

DIAMOND RED HAWK (CM) ~ Appaloosa gelding - CM by Kathleen Maestas in 1974

"Diamond Red Hawk, an Appy Performance Horse done by Kathy Maestas in 1974 into a stunning chestnut leopard Appaloosa, absolutely fascinates me! Here is a Maestas paint job totally unlike what was to come later from her. I mean, Kathy ended up evolving into such an iconic recognizable style, one could even say it was a branded style it was that iconic. She didn't need to sign her horses — you clearly knew how painted them just by looking at them! But here's Red Hawk who you'd never guess was a Maestas otherwise, would you? He's crisp, extremely intricate, and brightly clear-toned, not the blended, generalized, and 'dusty' tone of her later work. What happened?! I would love to know!"

1980s DIVISION

AMOUR (KO) ~ Arabian mare ~ CM
by Jason Ross in 1987

"Amour, done by Jason Ross in 1987, remains one of my all-time favorite Vintage Customs because of her color and workmanship. Impeccable. Perfection. And she demonstrates the power of a truly great and well-executed paint job and how far it can take a model, and how important both truly are to great work. I adore this horse and regard her as one of our GOAT customs. A pinnacle of our arts and the artist at the height of her powers."

AMARNA BINT MORAFIC (AC) ~
Arabian mare ~ CM by Elizabeth
Bouras circa 1983

"Amarna Bint Morafic, customized by Liz Bouras in 1983, is such a brilliant piece! I love everything about this mare from her cool treatment of her flea-bitten grey color to her beautifully done hairing to her facial shading to her tummy tuck to her sweet expression. And you can see Liz's confidence in this piece, which is a joy to boot, infusing this piece with that special magic that comes from an artist enjoying herself. Just such a tour de force from Liz and such a pleasure to see! So iconic!"

SPARTACUS (LD) ~ Paint stallion ~
CM by Chris Flint in 1988

"Spartacus, a CI. MOW done by Chris Flint in 1988, is in a word — perfection. There's nothing about this guy that pops out at me odd because he all fits together so beautifully. Every aspect of this piece is of the highest order culminating in a model that's aces across the board. Chris demonstrates that you have to invest your all in every little aspect of a piece for it to truly work, and Spartacus remains one of our most splendid VCMs of all time because of it."

DQ GREAT TEMPTATION (SS) ~ American
Saddlebred stallion ~ CM by Linda Leach in the 1980s

"DQ Great Temptation, a PAS with a Black Beauty head done by Linda Leach in the '80s, really caught my eye with his tremendous type and the super cool paint job Linda applied to him. Linda especially understood the Saddlebred neck and did a marvelous job conveying that in this piece. And he's definitely jazzed me up for a NaReViMo horse, trying that combination. Linda...inspiring us even after all these years!"

IMAGINE THAT (SR) ~ Zorse mare ~ CM
by Diane Capwell in the late 1980s

"Imagine That, a SM Seabiscuit by Diane Capwell in the late '80s, done up as a Zorse mare, demonstrates the effectiveness of paint tone and how critical it is to hit our tones for our piece to work. You see, so often we bust our illusion of reality if our elements look 'painted on,' if they're not of the quite-right tone so they don't seem to seat into our paint job well enough. This is a typical problem with stripes or primitive marks...they can just look 'painted on.' But Diane keenly understands how to get them to 'sit back into the hide' with tone so they look grown and organic, part of the hide and not 'sitting on top.' She's one of our few artists who could accomplish that so blithely and it's a pleasure to see it so full bore on this piece!"

BITTERSWEET (SM) ~ Holsteiner mare ~ CM by Kelly O'Toole Lowry in mid-'80s

"Bittersweet, a Ginger done by Kelly O'Toole Lowry in the mid-'80s, is astounding in its technical achievement. I happen to be a fan of this mold, so I love a good customized interpretation of it any day of the week! But then to put that exquisite paint job on her paired with that extraordinary braidwork? Wow! Yeah, it's amazing! And... phew...that braidwork — an easy 10/10! Kelly was such a magician with braiding and this mare clearly shows us what a master she truly was with it. Because if you think hairing a model is difficult, try braiding. Uffdah."

1990s DIVISION

CHINOOK'S HEZ IMPRESSIVE (VM) ~ Quarter Horse stallion ~ CM by Michelle Grant in 1991

"Chinook's Hez Impressive, a CI. QHS customized by Michelle Grant in 1991, is simply iconic. He's a piece that rings true in every aspect, fitting all together in absolute perfection. He also shows us that neatness in our artistry is critically necessary for greatness — precision, tidiness, and clean lines make a big difference. And that paint job! Holy buckets! Yet another brilliant work from Michelle and it's always such a fresh new joy to see this incredible horse! He's proof that timeless quality never gets old."

SIGNATURE (MH) ~ Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Chris Nandell in 1995

"Signature, an Adios done by Chris Nandell in 1995, remains one of the very best Adios customs ever done. Marry an immensely popular mold with Chris's impeccable skills with a lot of splash n' flash — how could you go wrong? Just such a great piece done with such a confident hand, showing us in no uncertain terms what real quality actually looks like. I love this horse!"

TECH NOIR II (AI) ~ Arabian stallion ~ CM by unknown in the 1990s

"And who—who in the name of Mike—is the artist of Tech Noir II?! We still don't know! This little masterpiece needs his providence. We must find out who created one of our GOAT customs! This will haunt me to my grave. This little stallion was done by an unknown sometime in the '90s, a phenomenal Arabian stallion from a SM Citation, and I swear, this guy could clean up today. Absolutely timeless in his perfection over every millimeter of work. Such an honor and a pleasure to judge this guy each and every time! Artist—who are you?!?"

WHIPPOORWILL INCOGNITO (BR) ~ Morgan gelding ~ CM by Judy Renee Pope and Elizabeth Bouras in 1993

"Whippoorwill Incognito, a LB Morgan/Saddlebred combo done by Judy Renee Pope and Liz Bouras in 1993, needs no introduction. This little Morgan gelding has got it all, in spades! Type, correctness, color, charisma, style — it's all there. It's why he remains one of our greatest VCMs of all time and a brilliant example of one of our best Golden Crosses of talent and skill. Judy and Liz absolutely made magic together, didn't they? And their magic lives on forever! We miss you Judy and Liz!"

SO JAZZY (KO) ~ Morgan stallion ~ CM by Sarah King in 1991

"So Jazzy, a Stretched Morgan by Sarah King in 1991, is so lovely. That mold is a hard sell to me, but golly — this artist made it sing! And the expression! Aaaaah! Love it! I think this piece remains one of the very best customs on this mold ever, which is saying a lot as this particular Breyer has been done to death. But So Jazzy is a fresh new, beautiful take and I love him for it."

PR MURPHY BROWN (JV) ~ Irish Sport Horse stallion ~ CM by Margaret Hallam in 1998

"PR Murphy Brown, an Adios customized by Margaret Hallam in 1998 into an Irish Sport Horse, is simply spectacular. His color just glows, his hairing is tidy, and his charisma absolutely grabs you and doesn't let go! Just a rock solid effort all the way around and so he holds his own wherever he shows up. Like I look for very specific things in a bay color — like it has to pop and glow on some level — and this piece certainly achieves that so beautifully. And that's just the tip of the iceberg! Such eye candy!

"Thank you again, VCMEC, for this wonderful opportunity to judge this incredible show! It's amazing to wallow in vintage-ness so completely and to study these ground-breaking pieces again to learn whole new lessons and be inspired in whole new ways. Just such an amazing experience — thank you!"

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Lois Bennington writes, "I thought all week about what extra I could say about my lovely Dane and I couldn't find anything else to say. He just keeps winning and why not? He is such a beautiful color and that hair mane/tail is everything! I wish my hair looked that good. He is just a wonderful model and I'm so glad he lives here at Verhalen Stables."

LAKOTA DIAMOND

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Kathleen Maestas ca.1969

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Eleanor Harvey writes, "This is one of Kathy Maestas's first models. He is an Adios, with no customizations. He's painted with brushes in oils, and his coat is textured, which is especially visible along his shoulders and around the appaloosa blanket. I corresponded with Kathy and sent her a picture of him, and she confirmed that she was the artist, and according to her 'The model you have is one of my very early ones, probably around 1961 or 1962.' I purchased him in the 1980s from Julia Lord, who called him 'Lord Diamond.' When I bought him, he was in need of a bath, and was missing the bottom half of his tail. Kathy added the frosted mohair mane and tail (for $5.00), at which point I changed his name to 'Lakota Diamond.'"

SPARTACUS

Paint stallion ~ CM by Chris Flint in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Color and Workmanship

Laura Doll writes, "I'm thrilled that Sparky did well! I love his pattern and he has a great face - so expressive. Chris has such a talent for bays."

"Although I started photo showing in the '70s, it wasn't until 1988 that I attended my first live model horse show. I had graduated college that spring and was taking a year off before graduate school. So that summer I loaded up my car in Louisville, Kentucky, and headed off for Ozark Mountain Live in Springfield, Missouri, which was part of the Heart of America Live Show Circuit. I had exchanged letters with a few of the people associated with the show, but I basically arrived nervous and knowing no one. It was at that show that I met Chris Flint (Chris Cook at the time). She took me under her wing and was so helpful and kind and we became fast friends."

"After that first one, I was hooked on live shows and decided that I wanted to go Kathleen Maestas' "Model Horse World" show in Nevada that fall. Chris wasn't interested in showing there, but said she would come along to sell models, plus bring her tack and props to help me show. (Nothing better than a 3-week roadtrip with someone you have known for maybe 2 days! Thankfully, we had a great time and are friends to this day.)

"When I arrived at her house in Overland Park, Kansas, to begin our adventure, she had an amazing array of models that she had painted to sell out west. I bought a few immediately, of course! She was still finishing up some horses and the one we referred to as 'Sparky' was one of those. I kept telling myself I didn't need to buy any more, but there he was on her stovetop with his paint drying, calling out to me! As we worked on models at her kitchen table those next few days, I kept looking at him until I finally gave in – Sparky had to be mine! I've never regretted buying him – I still adore him. At the time, I thought he needed a more formal show name and Chris suggested Spartacus based on his nickname. It suits him well!"

AMOUR

Arabian mare ~ CM by Jason Ross in 1987

1980s Overall Champion Color and Workmanship

Kelly O'Connor writes, "Amour was created for the 1989 MARA-ABC Select Sale -- I miss the club, the people AND the sales! I know I've written about her in 2021 [in the Summer 2021 issue's Victory Lap--well worth a read, so take a look in the online archive at <http://www.vcmec.org>] but I'm not sure if I shared her sales page, attached here [on page 28!]. Her detail, color and expression all appeal so much to me. Even then I did not see many Johars in the show ring and I think this is one more way she stands out."

SYMPATHY FOR THE DEMON

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1986

1980s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Am thrilled that this epic stallion--the second of Julie Froelich's masterpiece Morgans remade from a Breyer Lady Phase--did well! But it's moving to, because the much-missed Marney Walerius was in a way responsible for him coming into my hands."

"Soon after Marney passed away in April 1994, Julie bought a memorial tree for her at the Kentucky Horse Park, with the plaque 'In Memory of Marney J. Walerius: Roots of the Model Horse Hobby.' Julie had acted alone in making this beautiful tribute possible, and only mentioned it when sharing Marney stories with me for the memorial I was writing that ran in The Hobby Horse News."

"Corky and I were strapped for cash, what with costs for the upcoming trip to BreyerFest, but wanted to contribute in some way. That way announced itself when we went to the monthly Scotts Antique Market at the Ohio State Fairgrounds, where there were almost never any model horses: The world's most gorgeous OF Breyer glossy charcoal Mustang, nose skyward, awaited us!

"We brought him to BreyerFest, intending to sell him and send the proceeds to Julie as a thank-you from the hobby for the tree. As we were starting to tag the sale horses in our room, though, a hobbyist walked in, carrying an open box with a few remakes standing in it. She was looking to trade for vintage OFs. Among the horses standing in her box were RM Dancing Star, who was a Lady Phase CM as a dun QH mare that Julie had once mentioned regretting selling, and Sympathy For The Demon, who the hobbyist pointed out was having a strange filler issue, with a small soft area."

"She was crazy for the OF glossy charcoal Mustang...and by trade's end, Corky and I had both RM Dancing Star, who we sent to Julie as a thank-you present from the hobby for Marney's tree, and Sympathy For The Demon, one of Julie's most iconic remakes, for ourselves. The way it all worked out--complete with the filler issue healing itself within a few months--we treasure Sympathy For The Demon all the more, suspecting Marney had something to do with nudging the planets into alignment!"

SIGNATURE

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Chris Nandell in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Color

Meghann Hoscheid writes, "Signature is an Adios custom created by the ever-so-talented Chris Nandell, now Chris Flint, in 1995. He is a longtime favorite amongst my collection. It has been such an honor to have been his caretaker for the past 12 years."

"I have to say, I still adore this custom every bit now as I did many years ago, when I first saw him competing in photo shows. I was instantly drawn to his eye-catching pattern and soft life-like finish that is very 'signature' of her work throughout the years. She has such a distinct way of bringing her creations to life that I admire."

TECH NOIR II

Arabian stallion ~ CM by unknown artist in the 1990s

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Amanda Ingram writes, "Exciting news that Tech Noir won a championship again! I love that little guy and hope to find out who customized him one day!"

GET YOUR GROOVE ON

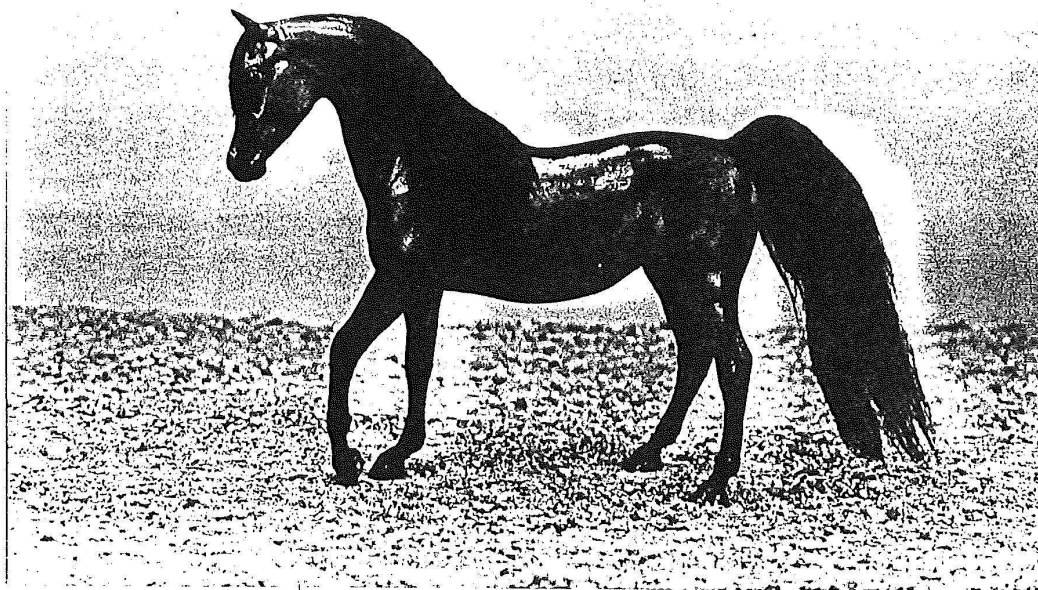

Paint stallion ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1990

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Jamie Coughlin writes, "She is remade from a PAF by Diane Capwell. Back then we were good friends and she sent me a picture of works in progress and I loved her so I was able to reserve her and pick the color (as in Appaloosa, the pattern was all Diane). She's still a good showhorse in open shows and still live show quality after all these years. Thanks!!"

Here to save us from some blank space is Diamondback! This saucy part-Arabian is a Breyer Legionario III customized by Elizabeth Bouras in 1986 for owner Corky Visminas. That makes Diamondback 40 years old in 2026--and he's still every inch fabulous!

CONSIGNOR'S COMMENTS: "It has become a tradition to include an APAGONCE daughter in the Select Sale, and this year AMOUR represents her illustrious sire--as one of the best yet. A beautiful mare who resembles her sire more than some of his daughters have done, she has poise and performance ability bred in from both parents. This little lady could go a long way for her new owner if she has a full line of good performance photos; and her pedigree indicates excellent racing potential and a future as a valuable broodmare also. She'll be eligible for the Egyptian Event in 1990, too. But best of all--as her name indicates, she is a mare who has a lot of love to give, and she's equally easy to love in return. So if you are looking for a mare who will be a joy to own, consider AMOUR!"
