

Scorched

Scorched areas, That's what I heard for today's message and when I looked up the definition, I knew God had something specific to say to each one reading this.

One definition of scorched jumped out: To destroy by fire or military action so as to leave nothing salvageable to an enemy army.

The enemy wants to destroy you. He wants nothing to be salvageable or fit for the Kingdom of God. That's his plan....But God has a plan too! He promises to satisfy you in the scorched areas of your life! He promises that no weapon forged against you shall prosper. He promises you are FIT for His Kingdom.

Where are you feeling scorched in your life today? Let His truth wash over you. God has ordained before the foundations of the world that you should walk in the truth. He will guide you continually and satisfy you in scorched places. You must hold fast to the truth.

God's love has been poured into your heart and His love gives you hope. Allow His love to wash over the scorched area(s). You must hold close to the truth that those who hope in Him will not be disappointed and that means you.

Just as you are justified by faith, you have access to stand in hope that God is who He says He is. You have His promises that you are competent and equipped for every good work because you are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works.

When you operate in the flesh, the flesh feeds more flesh. It's a progression from one bad place to another. However, if you willingly refuse the flesh, God will show you His salvation every time. He will equip you with whatever you need when you need it.

Do not let this time deceive you. Do not let the lies take root. Do not give the enemy a foothold in your life when circumstances challenge the promises God has given to you. Hold fast to the truth of what you know and Who you know.

Open the door and allow His truth to penetrate your heart watering those scorched places. God is able. He will do it. Though it delays, wait for Him. Though it tarries, keep your eyes on Him. He is faithful and just to answer you. Stand strong in hope that He will do it.
