

The Emig Master Suite

Enjoy a getaway and experience the Victorian ambiance of the Emig Master bedroom. All of our rooms have a unique and special charm and you will certainly find that here. The Emig master features a huge four-column king sized bed and other antique furnishings. This room enjoys beautiful sunrise views of nearby Mount Zion, and from its large unique curved glass windows, you will see the original buildings of John Emig's Acme Wagon Company. Sitting on the eight-foot window seat with its custom shuttered window treatments, you'll be delighted to hear the trains still passing by, and although the steam engines are gone, the train whistle will still put a smile on your face and a memory of olden days in your heart. Great for a comfortable night's rest or a romantic retreat, this room features a marble surround fireplace with a unique mirrored wood trimmed mantle. Oak hardwood floors with old world crafted trim designs articulate the effort that makes this room very special. This room has a beautiful open air porch balcony which overlooks the homes gardens and Koi pond, and has an en suite bathroom. All of our rooms are cooled by central air conditioning and the unique ceiling fans. Our guests who have already visited say, "We could stay forever!!"

Flora's Fancy

Flora's Fancy overflows with softness and serenity. Decorated in muted peach colors and featuring a white iron Victorian bed, you can just picture the Emig daughters giggling and whispering playfully at bedtime! A wall of closets suggests this may have been where several of the seven girls slept. A large ornate dresser with marble top and comfortable sofa and coffee table make this room the perfect place to kick off your shoes and forget the world outside. Flora's has a private ensuite bathroom and is located at the rear of the house overlooking the Court yard and gardens. Very Quiet!

Belle's Garden Overlook

This spacious room is located on the northwest corner of the house and is positioned to take advantage of some of the beautiful sunsets we have here in southern Pennsylvania. The bedroom features a comfortable queen Antique Brass Bed and vintage Victorian furniture. The six ft windows overlook the gardens located at the rear of the property. We've named many of our rooms after the Emig Family members. Belle is one of John and Sarah's daughters. As you sit in the large window seat that completes the ambiance of this room, you'll enjoy the views of the hillside meadow and maybe some thoughts of how Belle and her sisters enjoyed life in this beautiful Victorian home. This room also features a lovely marble tiled fireplace, wooden floors with expertly crafted trim designs, period appropriate braided rugs and beautiful era correct wall coverings. A truly beautiful room and a favorite of many guests!!

Edward's Mountain Sunrise

Make it a special stay for just the two of you in this exquisite room. Decorated in rich bold colors representative of the time, Edward's Mountain Sunrise Room is one of the most memorable bedrooms at the mansion. Located on the second floor, this comfortable room features an antique oak carved full sized bed and other interesting antique furnishings from the 1800s. Enjoy the eastward facing sun rises over nearby Mt Zion and views across the valleys leading towards the Susquehanna and Lancaster. Edward was John Emig's oldest son and the one most responsible for carrying on the entrepreneurial spirit of the Emig family. In the 1880s, Edward took on the responsibility of renovating the mansion and many of the exclusive additions are still present for you to enjoy today! Oak floors and a marble tiled fireplace add to the charming spirit of this room.

J. Albert's Quarters

Rustic and Romantic are good words to describe J Albert's Quarters. Named for John Emig's middle son and namesake this room is one of our premier rooms and a top choice for our brides and grooms, weary travelers, and couples looking for some special time to reconnect. This is a great room to grab a book and enjoy a bottle of your favorite wine as you enjoy privacy and quiet comfort in this room hidden away on the third floor. J. Albert's Quarters extends the entire width of the house and you will be charmed by the original wood planked floors and unusual sloped ceilings. The room is furnished with a European crafted suite of furniture, dating back to 1885 and consisting of a queen sized bed, marble topped dresser and end tables and a floor to ceiling wardrobe. You'll also find a lovely set of Victorian table and chairs where you might sit to plan your days itinerary or discuss your future dreams while by the beautiful sunlit window. A comfortable loveseat in a separate sitting area, small refrigerator, and private bathroom turns J Albert's Quarters into your special place.
