Eden Energy Medicine

Eden Energy Medicine: Energy medicine is an approach that involves balancing and restoring your body's natural energies for the purposes of increasing your vitality, strengthening your mental capacities, and optimizing your health. Einstein's famous formula, E=MC², changed the course of physics and history by showing that matter is a form of energy. The human body is comprised of molecules that are in constant motion and that are continually being influenced by outside forces. The vital role that these energies play in our everyday health and well-being has been well established.

Energy medicine techniques help to bring disturbed energies back to a state of balance and harmony. These techniques work with the body's own energy to help create health and wellness, activate the body's natural healing ability, help restore vital energy that have become weak, disturbed, or off balance.

Balanced Hands Therapeutic Massage with Massage Therapist & RMP, Dorian A. Wash

Providing Services in: Relaxation & Stress Management, Deep Tissue Massage, Trigger Point Therapy, Reflexology & Auricular Therapy, Reiki, Cupping

Auricular Therapy is a method of alleviating pain in different parts of the body through stimulation of the ear. It is a form of acupuncture where needles are inserted into specific points on the external surface of the ear that connect to other parts of the body.

Cupping is a form of alternative medicine where cups are placed on the skin to create suction, which can help with pain, inflammation, blood flow, and relaxation. The suction caused by a vacuum inside the cup makes the skin rise and redden as the blood vessels expand.

Shamanic Healings

Shamanic Healing uses ancient wisdom to align our body, mind, and spirit to obtain wholeness and harmony in our lives and oursouls. Shamanic approaches enhance a person's ability to seek and find their own answers to life's problems. Throughout time, Shamanism has been a way of life, learning how to walk in both worlds, blending earthly traditions and spiritual practices. Shamanic journeying gives you information and healing for yourself, for others, and for our Earth. Journeying opens up a sacred space within you and invites Spirit in to teach you and help you to "remember" your soul's journey, and to help you unlock sacred knowledge deep in your soul.

Just for you

Protecting Your Energy — Sheryl Kozy

Do you ever wonder why sometimes you suddenly feel drained of energy or notice certain unwanted feelings/emotiioons flare up after being in a crowd or simply talking with another person?

I do!!

As I am continually learning every day, I've never been more aware than now of how easily I absorb others' energy! I now recognize that I am a sponge in human form!

I understand that some people do not actually realize they are spewing out negativity and are draining the life force energy out of you unconsciously. They are reacting possibly from someone else's "stuff" not realizing they are being hurtful and using words that can cause iinner conflict for the person being drained.

I have experienced this draining situation before and it completely floors me and I notice I can't get motivated or even think straight for the rest of the day.

This is not something new for me but it did inspire me to share some tidbits of what you can do to protect yourself and regain your energy...

- WRITE and release!!
- Envision white or purple light surrounding you (especially before going out in public)
- Carry a protective stone or crystal with you (like a tiger eye or hematite)
- Journal or meditate.
- SAGE (before and after)!!
- Drum or rattle for yourself.
- Call in all your Spirit guides to protect you!!

And most importantly...LOVE YOURSELF!!!

To finish off, you can recite this Cleansing Prayer...

May I release all energies that are less than love. Help free my mind and body of all that no longer serves me. I send back any energies that aren't mine. I anchor into myself and the present moment.
