Biography

Theresa "Terry" Ann (Lautner) Block, lovingly known as "Mother T," age 72, from the four corners of Charleston passed away after a brief battle with COVID-19 on Friday December 18, 2020 at Lake Huron Medical Center in Port Huron with the love of a special family friend by her side. Terry was born on March 20, 1948 in Sandusky to the late Charles and Mary (Fenwick) Lautner. She was a 1966 graduate of Ss. Peter and Paul School of Ruth. She married Lawrence "Larry" Block Sr on December 9, 1972; he preceded her in death on August 18, 1984. Terry had a deep Catholic faith. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister and aunt who enjoyed crossword puzzles, games, baking, eating sweets, all animals and spending time with family and friends. Terry was known as the mayor of Charleston, she was one of the first women to join the Delaware Fire Department and was also avidly involved with the Minden City Fire Department. She was a practical joker, full of energy and always making people laugh. She was truly one of kind, the life of the party and loved by so many. A special Thank You to the wonderful staff and fellow residents at Autumnwood of Deckerville for all of their continued care, compassion and friendships that she cherished during her time there.
