

In Your Dreams

You see me see you watching.
You look but you don't touch.
I think that you want to fall in love,
But you're not sure just how much.
Not quite a lover, but always a friend.
I'd like to be more, but until then...
Hope I'm in your dreams tonight.
You'll be in my dreams tonight.

Time and again, we try too hard
To make our dreams come true.
I want you, and you want me,
But, we're not sure what to do.
What never starts can never end.
Just left to wonder what might have been.
I'll be in you're dreams tonight.
You'll be in my dreams tonight.
I'll be in your dreams tonight.
