

AMMS partner wins national civics award

The Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education -- a partner of Alexandria Middle Magnet School -- has been named the 2011 recipient of the Sandra Day O'Connor Award for the Advancement of Civics Education by the National Center for State Courts.

The award honors an organization, court or individual who has promoted, inspired, improved or led an innovation or accomplishment in the field of civics education related to the justice system.

Among its projects, the LCLCE has certified Alexandria Middle Magnet School in Alexandria as a Law Signature School, defined as a school with a comprehensive program offering multiple elective and non-elective courses at each grade level concentrating on aspects of the law and legal processes.

LinkedIn TumbIr StumbleUpon

Print Powered By Format Dynamics