PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

After a much needed summer break your officers are eager to get started again. Of course we were not completely inactive. On 10 July ten of our nobles attended the special meeting at Bahia. A proposal was made to hire 3 property appraisers to determine the value of the buildings and property of Bahia. The ensuing vote approved the proposal. On 31 July we had our 2nd fun day. A total of 23 Nobles and Ladies had a wonderful time at Eaton's Beach Restaurant on beautiful lake Weir.

Gerry Vannienwenhove

Unfortunately 3 of our nobles passed away this summer, Nobles Kenneth L. Johnson (2014 President), Milton G. Baas, and Dale Barsness. We will surely miss them.

Our golf committee was busy all summer visiting various establishments for tournament sponsorship. We missed Ken Johnson's dedication and hard work in spearheading this effort.

Our next meeting is on 8 September and we will be having pizza and refreshments commencing at 6PM. At 6:30 we will be entertained by a comedian who has generously agreed to donate his time and talent. Please make a point to join the good fun and fellowship.

First Vice President's

Bob Colins

Nobles and Ladies,

Welcome back! I trust you've had a great summer thus far. But, the fun's not over. In fact, it's just starting anew. Noble President Gerry has lots planned for the remainder of his year and I'm excited!

Don't miss out. Come join us at the September meeting to rekindle old friendships and create new ones.

I'm looking forward to seeing you.

Message From Second Vice President

Bill Tanner

We kick off the year with Pizza at our September meeting so come join the fun.

The Roster for the Paper drive is out and has been passed around via-email, I will have the paper work at the meeting as well. It should be pointed out that we compete with at least 20 other organization's for these stores, at Wal-Mart for instance I applied for permission last March and at least three other Charities have applied for that same weekend. SO please if you can afford two hours out of your busy day we can use your help! All you have to do is stand OR sit - hold a plastic tub in your hand and represent our club.
