

The Denver Police Retirees Association and
The Denver Police Museum
Announcing
Our July Luncheon and Theatre Presentation of the Denver Bronco Darrent Williams Homicide from 2007

Saturday, July 29th, 1030-100PM
at Landmark Theatres Greenwood Village

This case will be reviewed by Detectives Mike Martinez Ret. and Mark Crider, who were the primary detectives on this case when it happened New Day 2007.

We will be using a different theatre-so please note the attached map.

There will be a $10 fee when you RSVP, which includes the Chick-Fil-A boxed lunch of sandwich, chips, and brownie. All beverages are also included by the DPRA

You can arrive by 1030 to get your box lunch and choose a beverage or other snack from the theatre selection, which has many choices including soft drinks & various coffees.

The presentation should begin shortly after 1100, and will last about an hour.

If time allows, we will play some short videos of DPD in the 1950s.

So PLEASE RSVP by end of business Monday, July 24th, so we can have an accurate sandwich and customer count.
