

The Morristown Housing Authority's rental assistance programs continue to operate on the basis of funding that has already been appropriated through February 2019. Because the shutdown is not expected to last beyond that time, the shutdown should not have any impact on our normal operations. If the shutdown remains in effect, then an established contingency plan will be reevaluated at that time.