

Too many women in your life King David

Music and lyrics: Margaret Bagley©

David: Open the door, I know you're inside
I am the King and you are my wife,
This visit is my conjugal right,

Michal: This right will not be satisfied tonight

Chorus: Too many women in your life King David
Too many women in your life

Michal : Eight wives and thirty concubines,
That should be enough to take me off of your mind.

David: I'll break down the door

Michal: be my guest and
You can file your last complaint with all the rest.

Chorus To many women in your life King David,
Too many women in your life.

David: I haven't seen you for three long years

Michal I haven't kept score nor shed any tears

David: For the last time, Please be kind

Michal Not until your royal self is out of my mind

Too Many women in your life King David
Too many women in your life

Too many women in your life---Count me out!
Too many women in your life.

Based on the Play: The Agony of David by Anthony Gallo