

Slavi Pachovski

Curriculum Vitae

Currently - President of Institute for Trade, Standards and Sustainable Development – Princeton, New Jersey

1997 – to present – Adjunct Professor of International Relations – John Whitehead School of Diplomacy and International Relations, Seton Hall University, New Jersey

1992 - 1997 – first democratic Permanent Representative, ambassador of Bulgaria to the United Nations

1991- 1992 – Head of Department International Organizations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Bulgaria

1980 - 1991 – Professor of International Relations, Sofia University, Bulgaria

1985 – Ph.D. of International Law, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences

1983 – European Union Law diploma of specialization, University of Nancy II, France

1978 – J.D. degree, Sofia University Law School

Languages – English, French, Russian, Bulgarian.

Married, three children.

1996 Open Letter from Ambassador Pachovski