CA C.I.M.C.E. / CEU #: 5571

CA CIMCE/CEU Hrs.: 3

Instructor: Jeff Torres - Director

WA Approved: Yes

Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific, Non-Instructor Led, three (3) credit hour course will familiarize today's Interpreter with many of the common terms and processes associated with forensic and death investigation utilized by many law enforcement agencies, and medical examiners. Furthermore, in today's courtroom environment, both criminal and civil, many of the terms, concepts and forensic techniques that will be introduced are often times used in conjunction with crimes and accidents that involve the death of a victim or other associated person. Through a combination of provided video resources, self-guided terminology, photo identification word matching, and a question and answer exam, the language professional can expect to gain a better understanding as to terminology and other protocol currently used in today's courtroom regarding forensic investigation and associated protocol.

Presenter Bio:

With over 25 years law enforcement and judicial system experience, Mr. Jeff Torres brings with him a vast amount of first hand knowledge and experience in all areas of our current judicial environment.
