

BEWARE OF METHOD

Elaine McLachlan

Jesus told US to go into all the world and preach the Gospel; it is each one of US who is filled with the Holy Spirit, empowered and fragrant with the anointing, and ready and willing for those Divine Encounters that God uses to touch the hearts of the unsaved. It is our unique personalities, life experiences (ie, testimonies) that attract (or repel !).

Much street witnessing is done impersonally, by handing out a tract. This method very rarely conveys the LOVE of God (which is shed abroad from our hearts, overflowing with the love of God). People need to feel God's love and acceptance, and we cannot give away what we do not have personally.

On this website you read the results of our ministry, but we are finding that pastors of churches especially, see this as a successful "method" and want to use it to build their own churches. This is where "BEWARE" comes in. Our revelation, which we willingly share with others to use, is not to build our own church – it is to build THE church. People who respond to the call of Jesus in the street, and say a prayer to ask Him into their hearts, need to be completely free to choose any church, according to the leaflet (whether we personally approve of that particular church or not), leaving the results to the Holy Spirit, who is good and faithful. The Bible says that He who has begun a good work will bring it to completion.

God's promise, in the Bible is “TEN men from all languages and nations will take firm hold of ONE Jew (presently Christian, until after the rapture) and say ‘Let us go with you because we have seen that God is with you’.”

Our leaflet is as much a test of our character, our humility, our testimony that Jesus has come in the flesh, and our desire to equip the saints for the work of the ministry. We are finding that many Christians we meet are suspicious and self-righteous, because they have all of the Holy Spirit, and think that is all of the revelation of what God is doing in these days.

Let us instead, be open to one another and to the Lord. Weigh things, certainly, but recognize another brother or sister quickly and TRUST. God, in His wisdom, does not give all revelation to one group or any one person, because we all need each other. Our leaflet is, therefore, a TOOL for ministry under the above guidelines.
