MORNING WORSHIP
February 1st, 2026 4th Sunday After Epiphany

CALL TO WORSHIP ****

L: When we seek justice for the other,
when we love kindness more than ever,

P: we live as God asks us to live.

L: When we walk humbly through life,
when we offer mercy to those who hurt us,

P: we are the blessing God hopes we will be.

L: When we are willing to look foolish by following Jesus,
when we choose weakness rather than power,

P: we reflect the One who is in our midst.

HYMN "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing " #2

CALL TO RECONCILIATION****

L: If we want to truly live in God's presence, we must live as God's faithful people. Let us begin by confessing all the mistakes we have made, the wrongs we have done, the people we have hurt. Join me as we pray together, saying,

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION****

P: What have we done to you, dear God? We dishonor you every time we treat another with disrespect. We shatter your heart when we find it easier to break our word, then to take the risk to keep it. We fill your ears with the gossip, lies, and slander we speak about those around us.

You are wise enough to forgive our foolishness;
you are strong enough to overcome our weakness;
you are loving enough to heal the hurt we cause to you and to others. And so you give us new hope and new life in Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON****

L: What has God done to us - shown mercy! What has God done for us - forgiven us! This is the good news for us.

P: We will not boast, for it is not our doing. We will give thanks to God for such grace and hope.

L: Friends, Believe the Good News

ALL: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Amen

Prayer of Dedication****

May we always be foolish enough to offer our gifts to you, Generous God, for you use them to bring justice to the oppressed, to bring laughter to those who mourn, and to offer wonder to little children. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

BENEDICTION/SENDING****

L: We have been nourished by God's grace and hope,

P: and so we will go to those who hunger for justice,
as well as to those who thirst for reconciliation.

L: We are called to follow the One who is weak and powerless,

P: and so we will bring healing to the broken among us, as well as comfort to those who grieve in every moment.

L: We learn what is right and good from the Holy Spirit,

P: and so we will go as fools to be blessings to the wise, as well as to do not what is easy, but what is difficult.

The one thing we must see is that the Beatitudes by which Jesus begins this sermon are not a mild and sentimental collection of platitudes. They are a frontal challenge to almost everything we assume about "the way it is" in the world.

The only way they make sense is if Jesus Christ himself is able to sustain the blessings that he pronounces.

When that fact becomes our fact, and when we become convinced that Jesus Christ has the authority to support his promises, then the word "blessed" not only invites us to find the right path but also to welcome the path we find.

We now have the biblical doctrine of success.
