Special Event Today!

Wes and Jean Bowers will be dedicating their miracle baby girl, Addilyn Grace, to Jesus today! This beautiful little girl surprised them by arriving two months early last October. Jesus blessed them with the gift of life as their tiny baby girl fought to live, making daily progress as she spent her first several weeks of life in Nationwide Children's Hospital. We are so happy to celebrate today with the Bowers and Tiberio families!

We will also have the special privilege of Jean's father, Terry Tiberio, bringing the morning message. The Tiberios have faithfully ministered for many years to international students in Pittsburgh, PA in the International Student Fellowship (ISF) ministry. God has greatly used them! We are honored to have them with us today!
