

SETTLED WITHIN

If God says it, it's truth.

The determining factor is if you and I believe. Whether or not you believe, does NOT change Who God is or what He says. The promises, the blessings, and the curses in the Bible are the spoken words of God and if we believe the Bible is true, then I believe we need to ask the Lord to help our unbelief in the areas that matter most.

If God says it, it's true!

I know we've written on this before, but I can't shake this urge to ask you (myself) if within ourselves – if we can truly say it's settled – if the Word of God says it – then it's true regardless of what I see!

It stands to reason that if the Word of God starts with God speaking ("Let there be light") than the course of our lives played out here on this earth should be filled with more seasons than not, of speaking what has been established both in the Bible and in our spirits by Holy Spirit.

If the foundation of our salvation says: Romans 10:9 -If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved – then we should be following this example throughout our walk.

IF YOU DECLARE IT AND BELIEVE IN YOUR HEART .....

– friends – we need to settle it in our hearts and minds –

How many times throughout your life so far – have you come to a place where you have "Made Up Your Mind" about this or that and you have made a choice within yourself to do something?

By example, Jesus didn't tell people to go home and read the Torah and figure it out. He spoke to people about faith, He spoke to people about truth and love, and He spoke to people to believe in Him

There is something about speaking the truth, speaking the Words of the Lord that brings about an assurance of faith and hope and allows things to come to life and it brings about purpose and action that just a mere thought cannot do. It's where we overcome, it's where we rise up in faith and hope comes alive – it's where thoughts are no longer held captive and they can be released to accomplish hopefully, what God set out to accomplish as you let go and trust HIM.

One more thing – the Bible says we are to encourage one another with the Word of God – so if you can – find some time this weekend to NOT TEXT, OR EMAIL – but to call someone (what's that? It's where you actually dial a phone number! – I'm guilty!) and if they don't answer that's fine – leave a spoken voicemail – for them with scripture – because guess what? Before you decided to settle it in your heart and in your mind, it was already settled in the Book of Life! Help someone else to settle things – encourage and settle yourself and each other with the written, breathed upon, alive Words of God and believe and watch – your faith is about to shake some things!!!! Have a great weekend!
